The devil said to him, “All this will be yours, if you worship me.” Jesus said to him in reply, “It is written:
You shall worship the Lord, your God, and him alone shall you serve.”

- Lk 4:6a, 7-8

FROM THE PASTOR.....

One of the things that we should be doing for Lent is to become more aware of our tendency towards sin, especially the main ones, the one that seem to want to dominate us. So here is a brief list of what is known as the 7 Deadly Sins followed by a quote from the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

1. Pride: an excessive love of self or the desire to be better or more important than others. "Respect for the human person proceeds by way of respect for the principle that 'everyone should look upon his neighbor (without exception) as "another self," above all bearing in mind his life and the means necessary for living it with dignity."

2. Lust: an intense desire, usually for sexual pleasure, but also for money, power or fame. "The God of promises always warned man against seduction by what from the beginning has seemed 'good for food ... a delight to the eyes ... to be desired to make one wise.'"

3. Gluttony: overconsumption, usually of food or drink. "The virtue of temperance disposes us to avoid every kind of excess: the abuse of food, alcohol, tobacco or medicine."

4. Greed: the desire for and love of possessions. "Sin ... is a failure in genuine love for God and neighbor caused by a perverse attachment to certain goods."

5. Sloth (or Acedia): physical laziness, also disinterest in spiritual matters or neglecting spiritual growth. "Acedia or spiritual sloth goes so far as to refuse the joy that comes from God and to be repelled by divine goodness."

6. Anger or wrath: uncontrolled feelings of hatred or rage. "Anger is a desire for revenge ... The Lord says, 'Everyone who is angry with his brother shall be liable to judgment.'"

7. Envy: sadness or desire for the possessions, happiness, talents or abilities of another "Envy can lead to the worst crimes. 'Through the devil's envy death entered the world.'"

May the Lord always keep us safe from these sins.
