14th Sunday

I N O R D I N A R Y T I M E

"Nevertheless, do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven." - Lk 10:20

FROM THE PASTOR.....

Please continue to keep in your prayers those young men and women as well as the adult chaperones who were part of the bus accident, that our Lord Jesus will continue to bless them with healing, and not just physical, but mental, emotional and spiritual health as well. It was a powerful testimony to see many of them at Mass this past Sunday. On another note, as we all know, our parish is named after St. Thomas Aquinas but he must be a very patient and understanding saint, for hardly anyone ever mentions his name when referring to our church! "Newman" is pretty much the standard way of calling ourselves. Well as many of you know, our other patron, John Henry Newman will be canonized a saint on Sunday, October 13 of this year. One final miracle was attributed to his intercession. That date in October will be about the time of our parish fiesta, so that is perfect timing from the Lord. So we will be privileged to be named after two saints, two great examples of holiness to follow. So that means that starting in October, when I do the Eucharistic Prayer at Mass and ask for the intercession of our patrons I will no longer say, "St. Thomas Aquinas and Blessed John Henry Newman" I will be able to call them both saints! May you all have a blessed week.

Fr. Michael DePalma

DAILY CATHOLIC WISDOM

There is a vocation to suffer with Christ and thereby to cooperate with him in his work of salvation. When we are united with the Lord, we are members of the mystical body of Christ; Christ lives in his members and continues to suffer in them. And the suffering borne in union with the Lord is his suffering, incorporated in the great work of salvation and fruitful therein.
—St. Edith Stein quoted in Communion with Christ
