“I tell you, if he does not get up to give the visitor the loaves because of their friendship, he will get up to give him whatever he needs because of his persistence.” - Lk 11:8

FROM THE PASTOR.....

St. Luke gives more attention to Jesus' teachings on prayer than any other Gospel writer. He also mentions Jesus at prayer more than the others. In this weekend's reading, from the beginning of Chapter 11 of his Gospel, Luke presents the core of Jesus' teaching on prayer. It consists of Jesus teaching a prayer to his disciples, a parable on the persistent neighbor, and assurances that God hears our prayers. Having taught his disciples a simple, daily prayer, Jesus goes on to reassure them that God answers prayers. So many people still wonder about this. First our Lord tells a parable about a persistent neighbor who asks a friend for bread at midnight. The friend is already in bed and has no desire to disturb his family by opening the door. But because the neighbor is persistent, the sleeping man gets up and gives him all that he needs. If a neighbor is willing to help us if we are persistent enough, how could God not respond to our requests? This teaching ends with the reminder that if we seek, we will get a response. If a human father, with all his faults, knows how to give good gifts to his children, how much more will our heavenly Father give us? Instead of good gifts, however, Luke substitutes the word Holy Spirit. This foreshadows the gift of the Holy Spirit, who is central to Luke's theology and who will play an important role in the growth of the early Church after Pentecost. So as we should see, this parable and the teachings in this section should not lead us to think of prayer as simply a series of requests presented to God. Now God does want to hear from you, you are not going to pester Him! But prayer is more than just giving God your "list" of things. Rather, as Jesus teaches, prayer consists in recognizing God's holiness and His rule over all things, especially the presence and guidance of the Holy Spirit in our lives.
