FROM THE PASTOR.....

As we welcome back our college students both new and old, there is a lot of anticipation as we head into a new semester. After a very successful and blessed summer religious ed. program, here is the lineup of activities for our parish and campus ministry. On Monday evenings our collegians will be having their Lobo Ignite bible study/fellowship group, Tuesdays at 6:00PM we will have our RCIA class, our Catholic Studies Night will be moving from Monday night to Thursday nights at 6:00PM with the first one starting on September 5th. Our Welcome to the Pack Retreat for our new college students will be held August 30 and 31st and we are working on finalizing the dates for the college fall retreat. Of course our parish fiesta will be October 11 through the 13th and it's extra special this year as the canonization of John Henry Newman will be held on October 13th. We will also be presenting a couple of events for our entire community, both for our collegians and for our families with an All Saints celebration on November 1st as well as once again having our Advent season Las Posadas the Friday before Christmas. Our building projects continue to move forward. God willing, we will have an updated main kitchen in the next few weeks and then we can focus on renovating the bathrooms. So there are a lot of events and people to pray for. But a great deal of appreciation and thanks has to be given to all of our volunteers who help to keep our church building and grounds in order as well as our LoboCatholic volunteers who have been so faithful in recent weeks with their various projects. God has been so gracious to us, so as we transition from summer into fall let us continue to rely on our Lord for all of our needs knowing that the best is yet to come.
