25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Are you envious because I am generous?' Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last." - Mt 20:15-16

A MESSAGE FROM FR. DEPALMA

Since the feast day of St. Matthew is on Monday the 21st, here are some interesting facts about Matthew's Gospel

1. The Gospel of Matthew was primarily written for a Jewish audience. Matthew really wanted his audience to see Jesus in the context of Jewish tradition.
2. Five women are included in Matthew's genealogy. In the culture Matthew was written, genealogies usually only included men. The Gospel of Matthew, however, lists five women, each of whom made Jesus' genealogy more complicated. To a Jewish audience, including these women created questions, and so this genealogy begins the Book of Matthew by telling a story of God's redemption.
3. The symbol for the Gospel of Matthew is a winged man, or sometimes referred to as an angel. In the second century, St. Irenaeus famously associated symbols from Ezekiel 1:1-21 and Revelation 4:6-8 with each of the four gospels. He suggested that the winged man represented Matthew: "This, then, is the Gospel of His humanity; for which reason it is, too, that the character of a humble and meek man is kept up through the whole Gospel"
4. The book contains more than 130 Old Testament quotes and allusions. As Jesus speaks, performs miracles, and makes decisions, the Gospel of Matthew highlights how Jesus' ministry was prophesied about in the Old Testament.
5. Matthew repeatedly uses two phrases no other gospel uses. Both of the unique phrases repeated throughout Matthew have clear implications for the book's Jewish audience. As is mentioned above, Matthew changes the phrase "the Kingdom of God" (used in the other three gospels) to "the Kingdom of heaven," respecting the Jews' reverence for the name of the Lord. The phrase is used 32 times in the whole Bible, and it appears in Matthew all 32 times. Matthew also frequently says, "That which was spoken through the prophets might be fulfilled," reinforcing the connection between Jesus' life and ministry and the Old Testament.
6. Matthew introduces Jesus as the Messiah. Matthew deliberately connects Jesus to Messianic prophecies in order to leave no doubt that he is the Messiah—the one who was promised, the long-awaited king of the Jews from the line of David.
7. Matthew is the only gospel that mentions the magi at Jesus' birth. Commonly known as the "Three Wise Men" or the "Three Kings," the magi came to worship "the king of the Jews"—the Messiah. Matthew doesn't specify how many there are, but they brought gold, frankincense, and myrrh and the three gifts led to the common belief that there were three magi.

MASS INTENTIONS

There is no greater prayer than the Mass! Father is still offering your mass intentions at all the masses. You will hear him announce it when you watch it on lobocatholic.org. Do you know someone who needs prayer? Offer a mass for birthdays, anniversaries, time of sickness, or for those who have passed away, etc. Each Mass intention is only $10. A mass card is included for your convenience. If you would like a Mass offered for your loved one, contact Joyce in the parish office by calling 247-1094 M-W 9:00-4:00 or at jlucero50@comcast.net.

FASTING BROTHERS

In conjunction with Seven Sisters Apostolate, Fasting Brothers are men who commit to fasting one day a week in conjunction with their parish's Seven Sisters group (cf. SevenSistersApostolate.org) and offer their fasts in union with the Eucharistic Holy Hour of a Seven Sister for their priest, exclusively for the intention of their pastor. Sunday is excluded as it is the Lord's day and thus unsuited to penance. Holy Mother Church is under attack like never before. Our priests daily face the brunt of Satan's brutal assault. The Seven Sisters provide the prayer and the Fasting Brothers complement it with their fasts. We need both! "But this kind is not cast out but by prayer and fasting" (Matt 17:21). If you are feeling called to be part of the Fasting Brothers, contact Marian Tarin at 505-620-3715 by texting or leaving a message.

DAILY CATHOLIC WISDOM

Death is not the end. We were made for life. We were made for joy. And in Christ, that life and joy will be ours. Death brings the fulfillment of that life and joy, but we can live in it now. Even in the midst of grief. Even in the midst of plagues and poverty and confusion. If we are in Christ, we have nothing to fear from the terrors of the world. They cannot kill the life inside us.— Dr. Scott Hahn from Hope

O Come let us adore
