"Come to the feast." - Mt 22:4bc

A MESSAGE FROM FR. DEPALMA

This past Friday, October 9th was the memorial of one of our patrons of our parish, St. John Henry Newman. Now usually we would be having our parish fiesta this weekend, but because of all of the procedures involved with the coronavirus, we had to cancel this year. But here are three things that you all can do to keep up the spirit of a fiesta and of course look forward to when we all can fully come back together again. First, offer praise to God for blessing us with the example of his saints, and in our case our two saints, St. John Henry Newman and St. Thomas Aquinas. God directs us by the saints prayers, their intercessions for all of us and of course by the example of their holy lives. So offer some sort of thanksgiving to God for blessing us in this way. Second, go online and pick out one of the many reflections from St. John Henry Newman. Yes, he was quite intelligent but he was also quite practical and his writings provide some great insights for all of us. But finally, not only remember in your prayers but also offer up a rosary or some sort of devotion to our Lord for all of the people in our parish, most especially those whom we have not seen in awhile. God has also blessed us greatly in each other and though it's been wonderful to see many of you back with us at Mass, still, for a variety of reasons, many have not been able to come back, and of course they are missed. But we can all still be together spiritually and we can all still celebrate with a spirit of fiesta all of the good that our Lord Jesus has done for us despite this being the year of the pandemic. May all of you have a truly blessed week.

Fr. DePalma

DAILY CATHOLIC WISDOM

The Eucharist is the Lord's Supper. It's the family meal. Christ is our true breadwinner, only the bread that he has won is his own life that he gives us. We gather as a family. That is not some quaint, sentimental mishmash. That is the spiritual reality of what we do in the Eucharistic liturgy—of who we are as baptized children of God.

— Dr. Scott Hahn from How to Bring Fallen-Away Catholics Back to the Church

IN THIS CHALLENGING TIME

Lord Jesus Christ, our true physician and healer, be merciful to us and bring us your aid in these troubled times. Heal all our sickness and every affliction of your people. Drive out our infirmities of soul and body; free us from all disease and especially from this pestilence. We place in your gentle Heart the elderly, the frail, people with disability, children, young people and families, our indigenous peoples, those who are poor, lonely and isolated. As you walk with us, free them from fear, and give them patience and hope together with our loving care. In your mercy deal also with the causes of our pitiful condition, that in curing our lack of faith and spiritual weakness, you may also remedy our bodily ills. We place our trust in you, the risen Lord, who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

O Come let us adore
HIM!
