30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

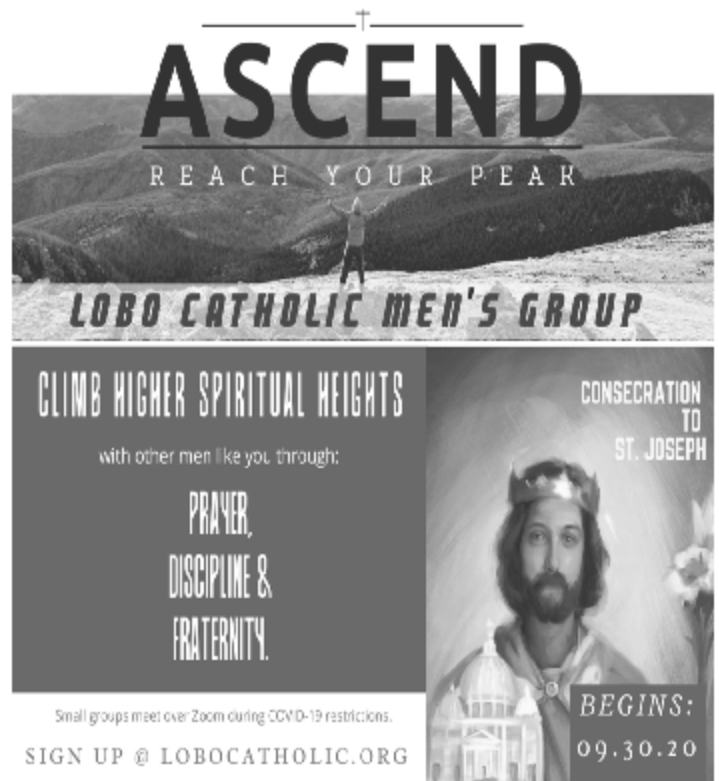

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind." - Mt 22:37

A MESSAGE FROM FR. DEPALMA

It's quite hard to believe that in just one more week we will be in the month of November as we will celebrate the great Feast of All Saints this year on a Sunday. But as we all know, the month of November is the time to pray for all of beloved dead, especially those who may still be in Purgatory, those who are being purified in order to be able to enter into heaven. Since we are dealing with covid issues this year, we will be doing things a bit differently when it comes to offering the Masses during this month for the dead. In years past we had our Book of the Dead up near the altar in the sanctuary where you could come and write down the names of those who have passed away and then at every Mass during the month of November, those people would be lifted up in prayers and offerings. But since we are still in a time of social distancing what we will have this year is not a Book of the Dead, but a "Basket of the Dead." We will have a nice basket placed near the altar containing the names of those who have gone before us. So all you have to do this year is to send us the names of those people whom you would like to be remembered at Mass. You could mail in the names on a sheet of paper, drop such names off at the office, or even email us and we will print them off and then place those names in the "Basket of the Dead." But any way you want to approach it this year, we will still be able to remember those people who have touched our lives at each Mass and at the same time pray that they can truly rest in peace. And for those who may still be in Purgatory, that they will soon come to their eternal reward.

DAILY CATHOLIC WISDOM

What is not possible to us by nature, let us ask the Lord to supply by the help of his grace. If we wish to reach eternal life, even as we avoid the torments of hell, then—while there is still time, while we are in this body and have time to accomplish all these things by the light of life—we must run and do now what will profit us forever.
— The Rule of St. Benedict

Prayer for Vocations
God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.
