A MESSAGE FROM FR. DEPALMA

Most everyone knows the secular holiday of Halloween. But not everyone knows that it comes from a holy day, All Saints' Day on November 1st which is followed by All Souls' Day on November 2nd. The root word of Halloween - "hallow" - means "holy." The suffix "een" is an abbreviation of "evening." It refers to the Eve of All Hallows, the night before the Christian holy day that honors saintly people of the past. All Saints' Day is a celebration of the communion of saints, those people who have gone before us who are now in heaven, thanking them for their example and asking them for their continued prayers as we live in such a way as to follow the same path back to the fullness of God that they have taken. All Souls' Day is a day to pray for all souls but especially our beloved friends and family who have passed on before us and most especially for those souls who may still be in Purgatory. Instead of a Book of the Dead for our parish, because of social distancing concerns, we are collecting names of the dead from you all to place in a basket from which all of those souls will be remembered in every Mass celebrated throughout the month of November. More than a thousand years ago in Ireland and Britain, a common custom of Christians was to come together on the eve of the feast of All Hallows Day to ask for God's blessing and protection from evil in the world. Often, they would dress in costumes of saints or evil spirits and act out the battle between good and evil around bonfires. That's the source of the modern observance of Halloween. The Christian concept of the importance of the individual soul underlies both All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day. All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day are related, but they are two separate celebrations. On All Saints' Day we receive the call to live as saints, to remind us how we're supposed to live and what is our eternal destination. On All Souls' Day, we remember all souls who have gone before us and ask God's mercy for them all.

DAILY CATHOLIC WISDOM

I must die to myself continually and accept trials without complaining. I work, I suffer and I love with no other witness than his heart. Anyone who is not prepared to suffer all for the Beloved and to do his will in all things is not worthy of the sweet name of Friend, for here below, Love without suffering does not exist. —St. Bernadette
