32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Lord, Lord, open the door for us!” But he said in reply, ‘Amen,
I say to you, I do not know you.’” - Mt 25:11-12

A MESSAGE FROM FR. DEPALMA

Going around the social media outlets is a very moving and well intentioned picture of a older man sitting at a busy traffic intersection holding up a sign that reads, "No matter who is president, Jesus is still my King." Of course those are some very true words. But in order for Jesus to fully and effectively be the King of our lives, especially as we are just a few weeks away from the end of the liturgical season of Ordinary Time which concludes with the Feast of Christ the King, we have to be able to love as Jesus loves and that is not going to be easy in a world, in a nation that is so divided. So yes, our gaze, our focus should always be towards heaven, but since we still are on this earth, we are still called by our Lord to bless as many souls as we can with the fullness of the truth, love, peace and the mercy of God. Those things we never stop fighting for. But we have to be true, not only to God but to ourselves. So though we keep up the good fight, though we strive to reflect the presence of Jesus in all that we do and in all of the circles of our lives, including the political, we have to keep in mind this quote from St. John Vianney:

All our religion is but a false religion, and all our virtues are mere illusions and we ourselves are only hypocrites in the sight of God, if we have not that universal charity for everyone--for the good, and the bad, for the poor and for the rich, and for all those who do us harm as much as those who do us good.

VETERAN'S DAY - NOV. 11TH

Lord God, Almighty Father, creator of mankind and author of peace, as we are ever mindful of the cost paid for the liberty we possess, we ask you to bless the members of our armed forces. Give them courage, hope and strength. May they ever experience your firm support, gentle love and compassionate healing. Be their power and protector, leading them from darkness to light. To you be all glory, honor and praise, now and forever. Amen.

FOR DECEASED VETERANS

O God, by whose mercy the faithful departed find rest, look kindly on your departed veterans who gave their lives in the service of their country. Grant that through the passion, death, and resurrection of your Son they may share in the joy of your heavenly kingdom and rejoice in you with your saints forever. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Prayer for Vocations
 God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

DAILY CATHOLIC WISDOM

Let men make all the technical and economic progress they can, there will be no peace nor justice in the world until they return to a sense of their dignity as creatures and sons of God, who is the first and final cause of all created being. —St. John XXIII From Mater Et Magistra

CATHOLIC CLUB FOR RELIGIOUS VOCATIONS

Our mission is to foster and affirm vocations to the priesthood and vowed religious life. We welcome members from all Archdiocese of Santa Fe parishes. We lift up our Seminarians, Priests and Religious with prayer, friendship and financial help throughout the year.
