THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

This is what John the Baptist proclaimed: "One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." - Mk 1:7-8

A MESSAGE FROM FR. DEPALMA

This weekend we celebrate both the end of the Christmas season as well as the first Sunday in Ordinary Time with the Feast of the Baptism of our Lord Jesus. Now as we know, Jesus did not have to be baptized as he, being God, was free of any sin, but he showed us the way to not only have original sin forgiven, not only how to become a member of his Church, but also to show us that baptism brings us into the very life of the Holy Trinity itself. As I often say when doing baptisms, once that water hits the forehead of the child being baptized, then God is no longer far away, but is now within one's heart, within one's soul, only a breath away. It's very hard to put into words how enormous of a blessing our baptisms are for us. So what would be a nice thing to do as we celebrate this weekend's feast is to go and find your old baptismal certificate and to do a couple of things. First, find the name of the priest or deacon who baptized you and offer up a prayer of thanksgiving for that ordained minister. Second, remember the day that you were baptized and when that day comes up, celebrate it as you would your birthday for that is the day you were re-born into the fullness of the Church of our Lord Jesus. And finally, even though it's not always possible especially in these days of the virus, but if you ever do get a chance, stop by the place where you were baptized, the chapel or church where you became a Christian and thank the Lord for His great mercy and grace given to you at that very spot. May you all continue to be blessed as we head into this New Year and may we always be thankful for the great gift that is our baptism.

MASS INTENTIONS

There is no greater prayer than the Mass! Father is still offering your mass intentions at all the masses. You will hear him announce it when you watch it on lobocatholic.org. A mass card is included for your convenience. If you would like a Mass offered for your loved one, contact Joyce in the parish office by calling 247-1094 M-W 9:00-4:00 or at jlucero50@comcast.net.
