He commands even the unclean spirits and they obey him." - Mk 1:27

A MESSAGE FROM FR. DEPALMA

Since we are living in times where there is still so much that causes us to be fearful--the lingering covid pandemic, economic and political ups and downs, the uncertainty of how the future will turn out--many people are driven by that fear. As I've mentioned many times in homilies past, for those of us who are Catholics, we should be the most fearless people on the planet because of all that we have been given by our Lord Jesus Christ through his Church and through the Holy Spirit, all guided by the love of the Father. But here's someone to back up my claim, St. Cyprian of Carthage in this quote which is to the point but is a wonderful insight that we need to keep in mind but also take to heart:

When we say, "Deliver us from evil," there remains nothing further that ought to be asked. For once we have asked God's protection against evil, and have obtained it, then we stand secure and safe against everything that the devil and the world would work against it. What fear is there in this life for the one whose guardian in this life is God?

Seriously, what fear is there for us to face if the One guarding us, leading us, loving us is God Himself? Be prudent, don't be reckless, continue to be hopeful, but be fearless! When we call on God to "deliver us from evil," He will.

MASS INTENTIONS

There is no greater prayer than the Mass! Father is still offering your mass intentions at all the masses. You will hear him announce it when you watch it on lobocatholic.org. Do you know someone who needs prayer? ## A REFLECTION FOR FAMILIES:

Pope Francis Proclaims Year of St. Joseph: December 8, 2020 – December 8, 2021: “Each of us can discover in Joseph -- the man who goes unnoticed, a daily, discreet and hidden presence -- an intercessor, a support and a guide in times of trouble,” [https://www.catholicnewsagency.com/news/pope-francis-proclaims-year-of-st-joseph-10779]

WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED: NEW RESOURCES POSTED!

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops and our archdiocese have joined together in a nationwide effort called Walking with Moms in Need: A Year of Service, taking place January through December of 2021. Walking with Moms in Need is a year of service where Catholic parishes and communities "walk in the shoes" of local pregnant and parenting women in need. Everyone should know how to help moms in difficult circumstances. While not trying to turn Catholic parishes into pregnancy centers, we can support local pregnancy centers where they exist, and we can also find and share other resources with pregnant and parenting women. And where there are few local resources, we can create our own, based on the gifts of the parish community! For this Year of Service, the USCCB has developed educational, pastoral, prayer, and action-oriented resources for parish use and the Archdiocese has compiled some local resources. Watch this clip: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5x2ArhjE41c>. Visit www.WalkingWithMoms.com and <https://archdiosf.org/walking-with-moms-in-need> to learn more!
