7TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"I do not ask that you take them out of the world but that you keep them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world. Consecrate them in the truth. Your word is truth." - Jn 17:15-17

A MESSAGE FROM FR. DEPALMA

Here we are again, at the time of graduation for our collegians here at UNM and for our young adults graduating from high school. One of the best gifts you can give at graduation is a simple prayer for the graduate. Asking God to bestow His blessings on someone heading into a new chapter in his or her life shouldn't be something that is brushed off, for such a blessing really is a necessity. After all, graduates are heading into an uncertain time of life where everything is changing. Some are headed off to college while some are heading into the working world, and even some are going into ministries far from home. They need God's blessing as the adult world that they once only dreamt about is now a reality. So here is a blessing for our graduates from the writer Steve Fry:

Grant Lord Jesus to our graduates the gift of faith – a faith that will illumine every season of hardship and darkness.

Grant them a love for Your Word, a heart for prayer, a song of praise and a sensitive ear to your Spirit. For they will encounter many crossroads in life; not just crossroads of career – but much more importantly crossroads of character. Times when they will have to decide whether or not to take the path that most glorifies You – even if it means being less successful or lesser known in the eyes of others.

In these days of easily discarded relationships, help each of them know what it means to be a faithful friend, husband, wife, father or mother.

In these days that seem so frantic, help each of them to know Your peace which passes all understanding.

In these days when they will most surely navigate through seas of change and even crisis, help them forge anchors of wisdom out of every disappointment.

And then give them a heart to pass that wisdom on to their children and friends.

And may they never lack in passion for You. Grant them a spirit that pursues You above all else. Amen.

PLEASE NOTE:
