PENTECOST SUNDAY

Jesus said to his disciples: "When the Advocate comes whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth that proceeds from the Father, he will testify to me." - Jn 15:26

A MESSAGE FROM FR. DEPALMA

The month of May is always a time that marks the end of things and where we have to say goodbye. We see this of course with our young people graduating high school or college knowing that there will be people that they will never see again once they get those degrees and move on with their lives. But some goodbyes are only for awhile as we know that we will probably see the other again but we just don't know when. Such is the case with one of the faces which has been a constant here at the Aquinas Newman Center since the day I arrived and that is Sr. Cory Woodcox. Sr. Cory will be leaving us to go back home to El Paso to be with her mom and sibling and aunts and uncles. I cannot ever fully thank Sr. Cory for the prayers, the work, the encouragement that she has given to myself as pastor here, but also to so many of you, our fellow parishioners. She has been an enormous contributor to our parish, doing everything from running our web site, to being an EM, to mopping up floors when the rain flooded our hallways! She will most certainly be missed. However, let us offer to our Lord Jesus prayers of thanksgiving for Cory's time here but also pray that as she begins this new chapter in her life that our Lord will continue to grace her with all that she needs to bless the people that she will be serving. Cory's last day will be Saturday, May 29th, so if you happen to see her before she leaves, do let her know how much we have appreciated her presence here at the Newman Center. God bless Cory! May our Lord keep you close to his heart.
