24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it." - Mk 8:34-35

A MESSAGE FROM FR. DEPALMA

Though the Church will be celebrating the 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time this weekend, this Sunday is also Grandparent's Day. There are so many reasons why we should thank our grandparents and those who are grandparents in our parish. Yes, we have a lot of young people here and thank God for that, but the wisdom and consistent examples of faith that the grandparents of our parish have given are truly invaluable. In the New Testament, Timothy's grandmother Lois was a person of living faith who had passed on her beliefs to her daughter and grandson as we read in 2 Timothy 1: 5. Grandparents can play a very special part in communicating faith and values to their grandchildren. In their calling as "elders in faith" they have wonderful gifts to offer.

1. Self Worth – Children feel great when their grandparents give them positive recognition and unconditional love.
 2. Heritage – Whether they are close by or far away, grandparents give their children a sense of their identity and belonging.
 3. Acceptance – children need to know that the adults who are important to them accept their enthusiasms, ideas and activities. Such acceptance by grandparents is hugely affirming for children.
- Love – The gift of "I will be there for you at all times, no matter what" – whether spoken aloud, written in a letter, or shown by actions – will always be the most treasured and remembered gift of all. It must have brought great joy to Lois to know that Timothy grew to be a man of faith who served our Lord. We don't always know the fruit of our prayers, our faith or our actions. So for those of you who are grandparents, remember that you still have much to give in the spreading of the faith. And for you parents and children, always thank God for the gift of your grandparents, and if they are still alive, go and thank them for their always being there for you.
