

Greetings Men of St. Thomas Aquinas Newman Center:

The Ascend 60 Program was created by our Seminarian, Deacon Adrian Cisneros, shortly before the pandemic. We had over 60 men attend our first gathering and we created three different meeting times based on that amazing turnout. Then the Pandemic struck, and we had to move to a virtual platform. Eventually we lost one of our groups, and now we have a Wednesday morning group and a Wednesday evening group that meet in person here at St. Thomas Aquinas Newman Center.

We have evolved into a group that meets weekly to pray together, reflect together, and read scripture together. The morning group is doing the "Bible in a year" activity, and they meet at 6 am on Wednesday mornings. The evening group is reading Matthew Kelly's latest book "Life is Messy" and we meet every Wednesday at 7 pm.

We come together a few times a year as a whole group and we'd like to invite you to our next event on Wednesday September 29th at 7 PM here at the Newman Center. We will be celebrating the feast of St. Michael the Archangel and will be sharing pastries, coffee, and punch in a celebration to welcome new members. If you are interested in joining us, please sign up by calling or texting Nick Abeyta at 575 756 4024. We look forward to seeing you there.
