All the faithful are encouraged, when possible, to participate at Mass and to receive the Holy Eucharist daily, to celebrate frequently the Sacrament of Penance, to undertake spiritual reading, especially the study of the Sacred Scriptures, and to participate in parish Lenten devotions as well as Lenten education programs. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is especially recommended. All are encouraged to make some material sacrifices during Lent and give that money to the poor. Please use our poor boxes.

Our readings for this second Sunday of Lent offer us motivation to continue on our 40-day journey towards Easter.

The first reading from the book of Genesis describes God's call to Abram (later be called Abraham). God instructs Abram to leave his home and set out to a land that God had chosen for him. Abram's response is an ancient example of a good stewardship. Instead of clinging to his comfortable home and way of life, he recognizes that all he has is gift from God, puts his trust in God and obeys. And God rewards him saying, "I will make your name great, so that you will be a blessing."

To "be a blessing" is an excellent way to live out the season of Lent. The sacrifices we take on, the spiritual disciplines we practice, the extra acts of service we perform during this season — all give glory to God and transform our lives into a blessing for others.

Lest we grow weary on this path, our Gospel passage today, from Matthew, offers us a powerful image of the great God we serve. It is the story of the Transfiguration of Jesus, when our Lord reveals Himself in His true glory and the Father says, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." The apostles who witnessed this were awestruck. But our loving Savior reassured them saying, "Rise, and do not be afraid."

As we continue on our Lenten journey, let us take these two verses, "Listen to him," "Rise, and do not be afraid" to heart. Let us rely on God's strength to aid us in our spiritual disciplines as we move through Lent. We will arrive at Easter with deeper holiness, as a blessing to God and others — and as better stewards of all God's gifts to us.

"Do you want to do a good deed? Teach the young!

Do you want to do a holy thing? Teach the young!

Truly, now and for the future, among holy things, this is the holiest!"

Family Adoration Night

FAMILY ADORATION NIGHT

MARCH 24TH 5:00-7:00PM

As parents we spend majority of our time running from one event to the next with our children or planning elaborate vacations where we come home more exhausted than when you left!

Ever consider that giving our children the gift of silence in the presence of God is just as impactful as learning how to hit a baseball?

During this season of Lent, add Adoration to your list of Lenten activities! The Tuesday Adoration will be extended to 7 pm on March 24th. Bring your family for even five minutes of silence to experience God's presence as you journey through this season of Lent. We will also have special blessing of the families at 6:45 pm.

Children in Church

A gentle reminder for parents, the gathering space is a great resource when children need to leave church during mass. Please maintain a level of quiet and reverence if and when you do need to take your child to the gathering space for a period during the mass. We love to see children at mass!

As Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

ST. JOSEPH CHURCH LENTEN

Road to the Resurrection

Monday, March 30th
