a letter from the pastor

Let us see this time of crisis and isolation as a tremendous opportunity for:

PRAYER

Pray for all the victims of this virus, especially those who have died from it. Remember also those in the medical field, first responders and those working to keep food and other necessities available to us.

GENEROSITY

Please remember the many families without and income at this time because of this virus. Be open to sharing what you are able with them.

SERVICE

Reach out to your elderly neighbors, those who are alone during this crisis. Share what you have, make a phone call.

I am sure any generosity and acts of kindness will be appreciated.

This is an opportunity to put our faith in action. Be kind to one another, be patient with each other!

Let us pray for each other!

Msr. Vogan

BEREAVEMENT Ministry

Since February 1999, St. Joseph's Bereavement Ministry has provided emotional support and encouragement to those who have lost a loved one. Each November, we celebrate a Mass of Remembrance, commemorating the lives of those we have lost. In the spring and fall, we host a support group facilitated by professional grief counselors. We call, visit or correspond with those who are grieving. If you or someone you know has suffered a loss and we can be of service, please call the rectory at 610-497-3340. If you feel called to be a part of this ministry, to be present for our families who are navigating their grief journey, please call Marge at 610-485-8213.

Today's readings are filled with contrasting images — God's vision versus human vision, spiritual blindness versus spiritual sightedness. Embracing a stewardship way of life can free us from spiritual blindness and help us to reflect the light of Christ's love in our daily lives.

Our Second Reading, from Ephesians begins, "...You were once in darkness but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light." Because of our Baptism, we have the "light" of the Blessed Trinity dwelling within us. In the difficulties and messiness of daily life, it's easy to forget this glorious truth about ourselves. It can also be difficult to determine whether we truly are living in a way that reflects Christ's light.

The stewardship way of life, with its emphasis on the rightly ordered use of the gifts of time, talents and treasure, gives us a guide to help ensure we really are living as "children of the light."

In our Gospel passage from John, Christ restores sight to a man born blind. The man says that Christ "opened my eyes." These Lenten days are an excellent time for us to ask Jesus to open our eyes, too. Let us ask Him to show us where we may be suffering from spiritual blindness, perhaps even in subtle ways in our use — or misuse — of time, talents and treasure.

As we continue on our Lenten journey, let's intensify our efforts in any of these areas where we have become a little blinded so that by Easter, we are truly living as children of the light.

PREP sessions last week, levels 2 through 6, went to confession. The students were respectful and prayerful.

In Wednesday's 6:00 session, Mrs. Hunt's class, Santino told us that they learned that while Jesus was carrying the cross he fell three times and Padraig told us that Simon helped Jesus carry His cross.

"You don't know how to pray? Put yourself in the presence of God, and as soon as you have said, 'Lord, I don't know how to pray!' you can be sure you've already begun."

Saint Josemaría Escrivá
