12. Upon your return, how will you be willing to help further the partnership with San Rafael Cedros?

Congratulations! You have decided to embark on a trip that will change you for a lifetime. Nothing's ever going to be the same. What you'll experience in your coming travel – including getting ready – will forever change your ways of seeing, eating, "helping" and conversing.

You will be a part of a delegation and a representative of Our Lady of the Presentation as you travel to our sister community of San Rafael Cedros. To more fully understand the goals of the delegation and to prepare for the trip, we ask that you attend three orientation sessions.

Participants for the delegation will be selected from the applications received as space is limited.
