

African Ministry

African Ministry brings together members of the African community for the periodic celebration of sacraments, for the betterment of people, the enhancement of their spiritual lives and the maintenance of their cultural identity. The African ministry does not displace the parishes of the people it serves. Those parishes remain the principle place for their worship, sacramental preparation and parochial identity.