

OFFICE OF VICAR GENERAL & MODERATOR OF THE CURIA

Mission: The Office of the Vicar General serves the Bishop by assisting in carrying out the administrative functions of the Diocese. The Moderator of the Curia coordinates those things which pertain to the administrative affairs of the diocese and takes care that the departments and agencies of the diocese properly fulfill their functions. The Vicar General sits as a member of the Diocesan Building Commission, Diocesan Expansion Fund, Diocesan Finance Committee and the Thomas More Society and oversees matters pertaining to the purchase, sale and leasing of real estate. In all of these functions the Office of the Vicar General and Moderator of the Curia seeks to provide service and assistance to the priests, parishes and people of the Diocese.
