“Responding to our God of Creation, Redemption &Inspiration
November 2, 2013, DCU Center

ValLimar Jansen, Morning Keynote Speaker

Blessed with an extraordinary voice and dynamic storytelling skills (complete with costume changes), ValLimar Jansen is a highly regarded singer, cantor and recording artist with OCP, a leading provider of contemporary liturgical music in the United States. She is also a college professor, a leader of worship and prayer as well as a workshop presenter at conferences across the United States.

Jansen presented “Responding to Our God of Creation, Redemption and Inspiration.” Maintaining that we are each created in God’s image, for God’s purpose, Jansen used scripture, reflection, prayer, music and storytelling to encourage each of us to live a life defined by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, ultimately sending us forth to be a blessing to others.

Teresa Tomeo, Afternoon Keynote Speaker

Teresa Tomeo is an author, syndicated Catholic talk show host, and motivational speaker with more than 30 years of experience in TV, radio and print media.

In 2000, she left the secular media to start her own speaking and communications company. Her daily morning radio program, “Catholic Connection,” is produced by Ave Maria Radio in Ann Arbor, Michigan and now heard on over 200 Catholic stations nationwide through the EWTN Global Catholic Radio Network.

In her presentation “Handmaids of the Lord: Re-discovering the Dignity of Women,” Tomeo showed the depth, beauty, and truth in the Church’s teaching on women, examining the roles of women in the Church. As one of only 250 women in the world invited to Rome to take part in a Vatican congress on women, Teresa also shared her insights from the historic 2008 Rome gathering focusing on how the Catholic teachings represent real freedom for daughters of God.
