You’re Invited!

A Women’s Listening and Sharing Session on the Synod facilitated by Megan Fox-Kelly

We are uniting with the universal Church in this important moment of consultation for the upcoming Synod of Bishops. The first phase, Listening and Discernment in Local Churches, is taking place in churches and Dioceses worldwide. Pope Francis is calling every diocese to share the inspirations that each of their local churches receive, to be incorporated in the work of the Synod of Bishops assembly that will take place in 2023, having as its theme “For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation and Mission.

“To plant dreams, draw forth prophecies and visions, allow hope to flourish, inspire trust, bind up wounds, weave together relationships, awaken a dawn of hope, learn from one another and create a bright resourcefulness that will enlighten minds, warm hearts, give strength to our hands.”  - Pope Francis

Meg Fox-Kelly has been a chaplain at Holy Cross since 2005 and serves as the director of the retreat program. Meg has worked as a high school religion teacher and campus minister before coming to Holy Cross. Meg works closely with the retreat teams and oversees the logistics and details of the various retreat programs. In addition, Meg offers individual pastoral counseling and spiritual direction. A Holy Cross graduate of 1999, Meg received her Master of Divinity from the Weston School of Theology in Cambridge. She is married to Marty Kelly, and they live in Shrewsbury with their three sons, Kieran, Sean and Conor.

Saturday, March 26, 2022
9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.
St. Mary of the Hills Church, 630 Cross Street, Boylston

Sponsored by the Commission for Women of the Diocese of Worcester
Visit our website for more information: https://worcesterdiocese.org/commission-for-women
You may also e-mail us at worcestercommissionforwomen@gmail.com.

Please register for this session by e-mailing worcestercommissionforwomen@gmail.com or by calling Jacqueline at (508) 841-5621 by March 18. Seating is limited to 50 attendees. Coffee/pastries/fruit will be available.