SOUPAPALOOZA The St. William's Mission Travelers are holding their annual Soupapalooza Event on Sunday, January 19 from 11:00 am to 1:00 pm. The lunch is free will offering and features a variety of soups and chilis, breads and bars. This year, our Mission Travelers have decided to start their mission early by donating a percentage of the proceeds to the Ryan Nannenga family. Ryan had emergency bypass surgery in November. He is the primary breadwinner for the family and will be unable to return to work for an extended period of time. Our Mission Travelers are hoping to help close the gap.

THANK YOU Thank you to all who have so generously made donations for our Christmas flowers:

POPE AT MASS: “TONIGHT GOD’S LOVE IS REVEALED”

THE GRACE OF GOD HAS APPEARED

In his homily during the Christmas Night Mass, Pope Francis focused on the theme of God’s grace: “bringing salvation to all” and shining “on our world this night”.

The Pope described this grace as “divine love, the love that changes lives, renews history, liberates from evil, fills hearts with peace and joy”. This love is revealed to us as Jesus, he explained: “In Jesus, the Most High made Himself tiny, so that we might love Him”.

In a world where everything seems to be about giving in order to get, God comes down freely. His love is non-negotiable”, said the Pope.

THE GIFT OF GRACE AT CHRISTMAS

“Christmas reminds us that God continues to love us all, even the worst of us”, continued Pope Francis, because we are precious in His eyes. His love is unconditional; it does not depend on us. “How often do we think that God is good if we are good and punishes us if we are bad”, said the Pope. “Yet that is not how He is...His love does not change. It is not fickle; it is faithful. It is patient.”

“Grace is a synonym of beauty”, continued Pope Francis, and in the beauty of God’s love, “we also discover our own beauty, for we are beloved of God”. In His eyes we are beautiful, “not for what we do but for what we are”.

ACCEPTING THE GIFT OF GRACE

Pope Francis continued his reflections inviting us to “contemplate the Child and let ourselves be caught up in His tender love”. At Christmas, the question is: “Do I allow myself to be loved by God? Do I abandon myself to His love that comes to save me?”

Accepting this gift of grace means “being ready to give thanks in return”, continued Pope Francis. “Today is the right day to draw near to the tabernacle, the crèche, the manger, and to say thank you. Let us receive the gift that is Jesus, in order then to become gift like Jesus. To become gift is to give meaning to life. And it is the best way to change the world.

THE GIFT OF OUR LIVES

Jesus did not change history with a flood of words, continued the Pope, “but by the gift of His life. He did not wait until we were good before He loved us”. In the same way, we should not wait “for our neighbors to be good before we do good to them, for the Church to be perfect before we love her, for others to respect us before we serve them”. Let us begin with ourselves”, said the Pope. “This is what it means to freely accept the gift of grace”.

THE GREATEST GIFT OF ALL TIME

Pope Francis then related the legend of how, “at the birth of Jesus, the shepherds hurried to the stable with different gifts”, but there was one who was very poor and had nothing to give. Seeing that shepherd, embarrassed and with empty hands, Mary put the baby Jesus in his arms, continued the Pope.
