AND HOMEBOUND

Barb Taszarek, Karen Vettel, Bonnie Ackerman, Jerry Olsen, Jodi Anderson, Lily Schmaltz, Frank Witte, Joe Pulskamp, Delores Vettel, Cloyd Kittilson, Francis Kritzberger, Susan Johnson, Amy Artz, Deidra Serumgad, Peggy Eblen, Jim Goertz, Marion Capouch and Penne Feickert.

LIFE MILESTONES

As a way to celebrate life and love, we encourage parishioners to share with us their Life Milestones, such as special Anniversaries, Birthdays or Family events so we can extend congratulations from our parish. Please contact Liz Kritzberger or Cecilia Cotton. Thank you.

STAGE TWO OF OPENING

We will continue wearing masks and social distancing, however, we will no longer require people to call for a reserved seat for Mass.

NEW NORMAL

For those people who are uncomfortable with coming to Mass, Fr. Casey will have the Sacred Host available for people to come into the church after Mass or he will bring it to your vehicle in the parking lot. This will take place during Mass about 30 min after the beginning.

LITURGY
ASSIGNMENT LIST

The assignment list for altar servers, Eucharistic ministers and ushers will be suspended until further notice. We will rely on volunteer lectors and Eucharistic Ministers for the Masses.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

“The stone the builders rejected has become the corner stone...”Mt. 21-42
Jesus was rejected by the religious and political leaders of his day, as well as ordinary citizens. Living a stewardship lifestyle may cause you to be “rejected” by others in today’s society. For example, saying grace before a meal in a restaurant may attract some strange looks from some. But to others it is a sign that God is alive and well!

NEW
PARISHIONERS

St. Rose would like to welcome any new parishioners to our parish. If you are new, or if you have been here awhile, and would like to register, please contact Liz Kritzberger, parish secretary or Carmen Henn, DRE.

FALL DINNER

As everyone is aware, Coronavirus is affecting churches and all non-profit organizations across the country. The Parish Council has decided that we will not have our Fall Dinner due to the Coronavirus. We are asking each parish family to prayerfully consider donating $50.00 to help recover loss of income from not hosting our Fall Dinner.

If writing a check write “Fall Dinner” in the memo and drop it in the collection plate or mail to 107 Drake Ave., Argusville, ND 58005. If you are already giving electronically, you can also give by using a “one-time” donation.

ON-LINE GIVING

St. Williams would just like to remind everyone, if you can, to please continue your normal weekly and/or monthly contributions to St. Williams. You can:
1. Mail contributions to: St. Williams Church, 107 Drake Ave., Argusville, ND

58005

2. Consider setting up your donations to the church using our online giving account. You can set up your account by going to this link: St. William's Electronic Giving Website or go to our website: www.stwilliamschurch.org titled "Online Giving".

Thank you for considering this. Keep St. William's family in your prayers along with all who are ill and others that work tirelessly in healthcare, emergency services and other essential services.

POPE AT ANGELUS: 'A TRUE CHRISTIAN CHOOSES GOOD OVER EVIL EVERY DAY'

Pope Francis invites Christians to open themselves to God's will and to put love for our brothers and sisters into action.

Pope Francis reminded believers that Christian life is not made up of dreams or beautiful aspirations, but of concrete actions, the capacity to open ourselves to God's will and to love our brothers and sisters.

The Pope was addressing the faithful gathered in St. Peter's Square for the Angelus Prayer.

He took his cue from the Gospel reading (Mt. 21:28-32) that recounts the parable of two sons who are invited by their father to go and work in the vineyard. The first son impulsively responds "no" but then he repents and goes. Instead, the second son, immediately replies "yes", but does not do so.

"Obedience does not consist of saying "yes" or "no" but of acting, of cultivating the vineyard, of bringing about the Kingdom of God", he said.

CHRISTIANITY IS NOT AN EXTERNAL FAÇADE

This parable, the Pope explained, teaches us that the Lord asks us to go beyond a religion that is made up of external and habitual practice which does not affect people's lives and attitudes.

He went on to say that the exponents of this “façade” of religiosity, of which Jesus disapproves, are “the chief priests and the elders of the people”, who, according to the Lord’s admonition, will be preceded in the Kingdom of God by “tax collectors and prostitutes”.

This does not mean, he continued, that Jesus indicates publicans – sinners – and prostitutes as models of life, but as “privileged of Grace”, which “God offers to anyone who opens up and converts to Him.”

“Indeed, these people, listening to his preaching, repented and changed their lives,” he said.

GOD IS PATIENT

The Pope assured the faithful that while God asks us to convert, He is patient with us. “He does not tire. He does not desist after our “no”. He leaves us free even to distance ourselves from Him and to make mistakes. But He anxiously awaits our “yes”, so as to welcome us anew in His fatherly arms, and to fill us with His boundless mercy.”

Faith in God, he continued, asks us “to renew every day the choice of good over evil, the choice of the truth rather than lies, the choice of love for our neighbor over selfishness.”

Quoting from Luke he said those who convert to this choice will be the first to find place in the Kingdom of heaven, “where there is grater joy for a single sinner who converts than for ninety-nine righteous people”.

THE GRACE OF CONVERSION

The Pope also pointed out that conversion is a painful process “of purification from moral encrustations.” It is a path, he added, in which there is renunciation and sacrifice.

The Gospel passage, he said, calls into question the way of living a Christian life that must consist of concrete actions and commitments and love for the other.

Pope Francis concluded invoking the Most Holy Mary to help us to be docile to the actions of the Holy Spirit “who melts the hardness of hearts and disposes them to repentance so we may obtain the life and salvation promised by Jesus.”

ON-LINE GIVING

During this trying time when we are not able to worship as a community, our parish still has expenses that we must deal with. Please consider going to our website: www.strosehillsboro.com to give a one time, weekly or monthly recurring amount from Goose River Bank or give via your credit card. After we are able to come together again, you may return to your usual way of giving. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Jordan Hjelle, webmaster of the site.
