LITURGY ASSIGNMENT LIST

The assignment list for altar servers, Eucharistic ministers and ushers will be suspended until further notice. We will rely on volunteer lectors and Eucharistic Ministers for the Masses.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

“Do nothing out of selfishness; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves...” Philippians 2:3
Pride and ego are hard things to control. We see how others act or dress and think we are superior to them. We idolize our own self-image. But, if we truly believe everything is a gift from God, we recognize all the people that God has put in our lives as gifts! We are grateful for how they enrich our lives. Pray every day for the people in your life: your family, your friends and those who make you angry.

NEW PARISHIONERS

St. Rose would like to welcome any new parishioners to our parish. If you are new, or if you have been here awhile, and would like to register, please contact Liz Kritzberger, parish secretary or Carmen Henn, DRE.

DINNER

As everyone is aware, Coronavirus is affecting churches and all non-profit organizations across the country. The Parish Council has decided that we will not have our Fall Dinner due to the Coronavirus. We are asking each parish family to prayerfully consider donating $50.00 to help recover loss of income from not hosting our Fall Dinner.

If writing a check write "Fall Dinner" in the memo and drop it in the collection plate or mail to 107 Drake Ave., Argusville, ND 58005. If you are already giving electronically, you can also give by using a "one-time" donation.

ON-LINE GIVING

Thank you for considering this. Keep St. William's family in your prayers along with all who are ill and others that work tirelessly in healthcare, emergency services and other essential services.

POPE AT ANGELUS: GOD CALLS EVERYONE, AND CALLS ALWAYS

At the Angelus on Sunday, Pope Francis reflected on the parable of the workers in the vineyard and elaborates on two ways God acts.

In his reflection of the Gospel, Pope Francis highlighted two attitudes of the landowner in Jesus's parable about the workers in the vineyard: the "call" and the "recompense."

CALLING EVERYONE, CALLING ALWAYS

Jesus tells of a landowner who "goes out and calls" people to work in his vineyard. "That owner", said Pope Francis, "represents God, who calls everyone and calls always." This is how God acts even today, and we, in turn, are called to imitate this attitude by going out to seek people whenever they may be.

"This means being open to horizons that offer hope to those stationed on the existential peripheries," the Pope said, people "who have not yet experienced or who have lost, the strength and light that comes with meeting Christ."

He added, "The Church must always be like God, always going out. And when the Church is not going out, she gets sick." Pope Francis said it is better for the Church to be "going out" announcing the Gospel, despite the dangers, than to grow sick by remaining closed in on herself. "God always goes out, because He's a Father Who loves – and the Church always needs to do the same thing, always going out."

GOING BEYOND JUSTICE

The second attitude of the landowner also mirrors the action of God. When he pays the workers their wages, the owner gives all of them the same pay, no matter how long they worked. From this we understand "that Jesus is not speaking about work just wages, but about the Kingdom of God and the goodness of the heavenly Father," said Pope Francis.

God "does not look at the time and the results," the Pope continued. Instead, He considers, "the availability and the generosity with which we put ourselves at His service." This way of acting, said Pope Francis, "is more than just in the sense that it goes beyond justice and is manifested in Grace."

Those who rely on their own merits "find themselves last", the Pope explained, while "those who humbly entrust themselves to the Father's mercy, from being last, find themselves first."

THE FIELD AND THE VINEYARD

Pope Francis concluded his Angelus address with the prayer that "Mary, Most Holy might help us to feel every day the joy and wonder of being called by God to work for Him, in His field which is the world, and His vineyard which is the Church."

ON-LINE GIVING

During this trying time when we are not able to worship as a community, our parish still has expenses that we must deal with. Please consider going to our website: www.strosehillsboro.com to give a one time, weekly or monthly recurring amount from Goose River Bank or give via your credit card. After we are able to come together again, you may return to your usual way of giving. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Jordan Hjelle, webmaster of the site.
