POPE AT ANGELUS: ADVENT IS A CONTINUOUS CALL TO HOPE

Following Mass in St. Peter's Basilica on the First Sunday of Advent, Pope Francis during the Angelus told the faithful that this season is one of expectation and hope.

During his Angelus from St. Peter's Square, the Pope pointed out that this first Sunday of Advent also marks the beginning of a new liturgical year.

He noted that in it, "the Church marks the passage of time with the celebration of the main events in the life of Jesus and in the history of salvation" is so doing, as Mother, "she illuminates the path of our existence, supports us in our daily occupations and guides us towards the final encounter with Christ."

EXPECTATION OF HOPE

Turning his thoughts to Sunday's liturgy, Pope Francis commented that it "invites us to live the first important season of the liturgical year, Advent, which prepares us for Christmas, as a time of expectation and hope."

The Pope said that St. Paul indicates the object of expectation in the "manifestation of the Lord."

"The Apostle invites the Christians of Corinth, and us too, to focus our attention of the encounter with Jesus, who will come at the end of the world and who comes every day, so that, with His grace, we might accomplish good in our own lives and in the lives of others," said Pope Francis.

CALLING ON THE LORD IN TIMES OF TRIAL

"Our God is the God who comes." He never disappoints us, stressed the Pope. "He came at a precise moment in history and became man to take our sins upon Himself." "The Lord knocks at the doors of our hearts," he said.

Pope Francis emphasized that at a time when people are worried by the COVID-19 pandemic, "we run the risk of falling into pessimism, closure and apathy." The antidote to this, he said, was to await the Lord because he "is our help and our shield."

"Confidently waiting for the Lord allows us to find comfort and courage in the dark moments of our lives," he said.

GOD WITH US

Advent is a continuous call to hope," the Pope underlined. "It reminds us that God is present in history to lead it to its ultimate goal and to its fullness, which is the Lord Jesus Christ. God is present in the history of humanity. He is the 'God-with-us'. He walks beside us to support us."

Pope Francis concluded by saying, "The Lord never abandons us. He accompanies us through the events of our lives to help us discover the meaning of the journey, the meaning of everyday life, to give us courage when we are under duress or when we suffer in the midst of life's storms. God always extends His hand to us and frees us from threats.

FALL DINNER

As everyone is aware, Coronavirus is affecting churches and all non-profit organizations across the country. The Parish Council has decided that we will not have our Fall Dinner due to the Coronavirus. We are asking each parish family to prayerfully consider donating $50.00 to help recover loss of income from not hosting our Fall Dinner.

If writing a check write "Fall Dinner" in the memo and drop it in the collection plate or mail to 107 Drake Ave., Argusville, ND 58005. If you are already giving electronically, you can also give by using a "one-time" donation.
