ON-LINE GIVING

During this trying time when we are not able to worship as a community, our parish still has expenses that we must deal with. Please consider going to our website: www.strosehillsboro.com to give a one time, weekly or monthly recurring amount from Goose River Bank or give via your credit card. After we are able to come together again, you may return to your usual way of giving. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Jordan Hjelle, webmaster of the site.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

“Did not our hearts burn within us while He talked to us on the road, while He opened to us the scriptures?” (Luke 24:32)

How often do we take the time to discern what Jesus wants from us? Are our prayers always petitions, asking Jesus to do things for us? If so, that’s a one-sided relationship. Living our faith means developing a personal relationship with Jesus. Just like any friendship, there is give and take, each side listening to each other and helping each other out. Take time in silence to listen to what Jesus is asking of you.

GOD’S GIFT APPEAL

The Masses will be available to view later in the day. Go to the Diocese of Fargo You Tube Page to watch either the live-stream or the recorded Mass, then say a “Spiritual Communion.”

POPE AT MASS: ‘LET’S THINK OF OUR LADY OF SORROWS AND THANK HER FOR ACCEPTING BEING MOTHER’

At Casa Santa Marta, Reminds Mary Never Asked Anything for Herself, Only for Others.

Let’s think of the sorrows of Our Lady and thank you for having accepted being a Mother.

The Holy Father dedicated the homily to the Virgin of Sorrows.

Today-he said-it will do us good to think of the sorrows of Our Lady and thank her for having accepted to be a Mother.”

At the start of the Mass, while remembering all victims of coronavirus, the Holy Father prayed for those who carry great responsibilities even eventually in the aftermath of the epidemic, to help those who, resulting from this period have problems of poverty, work and hunger.

“There are people who are now starting to think about the aftermath: the aftermath of the pandemic. To all the problems that will come: problems of poverty, work hunger...,” he observed, inviting: “We pray for all the people who help today, but also think about tomorrow, in order to help us all.”

Pope Francis encouraged the faithful to do this homework: ‘late in the evening, when I pray the Angelus, to pray and recall her seven sorrows as a remembrance of the Mother of the Church, as the Mother of the Church gave birth to all of us with so much pain...’

Christian piety, Francis said, follows this path of the Madonna that accompanies Jesus.

Our Lady never asked for anything for herself,” the Pope said, “ever.”

Recalling her utter selflessness, Francis said: “Honor Our Lady and say: “This is my Mother,” because she is Mother.”

“Our Lady,” the Argentine Pontiff said, “did not want to take any title from Jesus; she received the gift of being Mother of Him and the duty to accompany us as Mother, to be our Mother.”

“She is our mother,” he said, who with strength and trust in God pushed through her broken heart. “It wasn’t a fake cry,” he said, “it was her heart destroyed by pain.”

For this reason, Francis implored: “It will do us good to stop a little and say to Our Lady: “Thank you for accepting to be Mother when the Angel told you and thank you for accepting to be Mother when Jesus told you.”

Before concluding, the Pope exhorted the faithful to partake in Spiritual Communion in this difficult time and ended the celebration with Eucharistic Adoration and Benediction.
