During this trying time when we are not able to worship as a community, our parish still has expenses that we must deal with. Please consider going to our website: www.strosehillsboro.com to give a one time, weekly or monthly recurring amount from Goose River Bank or give via your credit card. After we are able to come together again, you may return to your usual way of giving. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Jordan Hjelle, webmaster of the site.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

“Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.” 1 Corinthians 10:17

As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose. One, it helps build God’s kingdom here on earth. Two, it helps us strengthen each other’s relationship with God the Father, Jesus and the Holy Spirit. It becomes our roadmap to Heaven. Let’s help each other get there!

POPE AT MASS: POPE PRAYS ‘FOR THOSE SERVING UNJUST SENTENCES’

At Casa Santa Marta Pope Francis Reminds that From the Womb, God Has a Plan for Each of Us.

No one of us fell into this world by chance...From the womb, God had a plan for us...

According to Vatican News, Pope Francis stressed this during his private daily Mass at his residence, Casa Santa Marta.

At the start of the Mass, while remembering all victims of Coronavirus, the Holy Father prayed for innocent people, unjustly sentenced.

“I would like to pray today for all those persons who suffer an unjust sentence because of persecution”.

Jesus, the Holy Father lamented, was targeted by the doctors of the law even though He was innocent.

Reflecting on Isaiah’s prophecy (Is.49:1-6) relating to the Messiah and the People of God, the Pope has ‘chosen’ each and everyone of us, for a particular mission.

“God chose the prophet before he was born,” the Jesuit Pope reminded, pointing out: “In the same way, each one of us is chosen with the vocation of serving from our mother’s womb. None of us fell into this world by chance.”

Each one of us, he said, has a destiny, a free destiny. “The destiny is the election of God. I am born chosen to be a servant of God with the task of serving.”

All of us, the Pope reminded, in one way or another are called to serve, and to live out our own vocation in significant and in little ways.

“Except for Our Lady and Jesus”, he admitted, “we have all fallen.” The example of Peter is a source of inspiration, Francis said, recalling that when Peter denied Jesus and the cock crowed, he cried and repented (Mt 26:75).

“This is the path of a servant who asks for forgiveness when he or she slips and falls”.

Francis lamented the other path where the servant is incapable of understanding that he or she has fallen, leaving the heart open to passions that lead to idolatry. “Like Judas”, he regretted, “the heart becomes open to Satan.”

Pope Francis concluded his homily, inviting the faithful to think of Jesus who was faithful in service. “We are by vocation meant to serve and not to make a profit from our position in the Church.

Like Peter, Pope Francis prayed, may we be able to weep when we slip and fall.
