PRAY FOR OUR SICK
AND HOMEBOUND

Barb Taszarek, Karen Vettel, Bonnie Ackerman, Jerry Olsen, Jodi Anderson, Lily Schmaltz, Frank Witte, Joe Pulskamp, Delores Vettel, Cloyd Kittilson, Francis Kritzberger, Susan Johnson, Amy Artz, Deidra Serumgad and Penne Feickert.

STAGE TWO OF OPENING

We will continue wearing masks and social distancing, however, we will no longer require people to call for a reserved seat for Mass.

NEW NORMAL

For those people who are uncomfortable with coming to Mass, Fr. Casey will have the Sacred Host available for people to come into the church after Mass or he will bring it to your vehicle in the parking lot. This will take place during Mass about 30 min after the beginning.

LITURGY
ASSIGNMENT LIST

The assignment list for altar servers, Eucharistic ministers and ushers will be suspended for the summer. We will rely on volunteer lectors and Eucharistic Ministers for the Masses.

ON-LINE GIVING

During this trying time when we are not able to worship as a community, our parish still has expenses that we must deal with. Please consider going to our website: www.strosehillsboro.com to give a one time, weekly or monthly recurring amount from Goose River Bank or give via your credit card. After we are able to come together again, you may return to your usual way of giving. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Jordan Hjelle, webmaster of the site.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

“For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.” – Matthew 11:30

When we think of being good stewards, we may think that God is asking too much of us when He calls us to generously share our time, talent and treasure. However, we must remember that we are not “owners of anything, we are merely “stewards” of the gifts God has given us. All He is asking is that we give back a small portion, in gratitude, of what He has already given to us.

GOD’S GIFT APPEAL

Thanks to all our parishioners who have made their gift to the 2020 God’s Gift Appeal. As of July 3, St. Rose of Lima is 85% towards our goal of $25,818.00. If you have not yet completed your card, please prayerfully consider making your pledge.

NEW PARISHIONERS

St. Rose would like to welcome any new parishioners to our parish. If you are new, or if you have been here awhile, and would like to register, please contact Liz Kritzberger, parish secretary or Carmen Henn, DRE.

Thank you for considering this. Keep St. William's family in your prayers along with all who are ill and others that work tirelessly in healthcare, emergency services and other essential services.

POPE AT MASS: LET US BE CHALLENGED BY JESUS, LIKE PETER AND PAUL

Pope Francis invites us to be builders of unity and prophets of God's heaven on earth.

In his homily, the pope reflected on the themes of “unity” and “prophecy”.

UNITY THE FRUIT OF PRAYER

Although very different in experience and personality, Peter and Paul were united as brothers, the Holy Father said. Their closeness to one another was not a result of natural inclination, he explained, but came from the Lord, who commands us to love one another. “He is the one who unites us,” the Pope said, “without making us all alike.”

Pope Francis explained that the source of unity is prayer, and pointed to the example of the Church praying together for St. Peter when he was in prison. The faithful of the time did not complain about persecution but gathered together in prayer.

If we spent more time in prayer and less time complaining, the Pope said, “so many doors would be opened, so many chains that bind would be broken.”

PROPHECY FOLLOW CHALLENGES

The challenges faced by Peter and Paul led to “prophecy” the second theme of the Pope’s homily. “The Apostles were challenged by Jesus,” the Pope said: Peter, when Jesus asked the Apostles, “Who do you say that I am?”; and Paul, when Jesus asked him, “Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?”

“These challenges and reversals,” the Pope said, “are followed by prophecies.” At Caesarea Philippi, Jesus tells Peter he will be the rock on which He will found His Church. Paul, after his conversion, became the Lord’s “chosen instrument” to bring the Gospel to the Gentiles.

“Prophecy is born whenever we allow ourselves to be challenged by God,” said Pope Francis

NEED FOR REAL PROPHECY

“Today we need prophecy, real prophecy,” he continued. Real prophecy does not consist in spectacular displays, but in bearing witness in one’s life to the love of God: “This is how Peter and Paul preached Jesus, as men in love with God.”

Their love led them to offer their lives as martyrs: “That was prophecy,” the Pope said, “and it changed history.”

Recalling once again the Lord’s prophecy to Peter, the rock, Pope Francis said there is a similar promise for us.

“Just as the Lord turned Simon into Peter,” the Pope explained, “so He is calling each on us, in order to make us living stones with which to build a renewed Church and a renewed unity.”

Pope Francis concluded inviting everyone to allow ourselves to “be challenged by Jesus” and to respond to His call to be “builders of unity” and “prophets of God’s heaven on earth.”
