This collection supports the preservation of Holy Sites in the Holy Land, as well as the local communities, including Christians displaced from neighboring countries because of civil unrest. Please put your contribution in an envelope marked Holy Land Collection and leave in the collection basket.

LIFE
MILESTONES As a way to celebrate life and love, we encourage parishioners to share with events so we can extend congratulations from our parish. Please contact Liz Kritzberger or Cecilia Cotton. Thank you.

STAGE TWO OF OPENING

We will continue wearing masks and social distancing, however, we will no longer require people to call for a reserved seat for Mass.

2020
ELECTION

The 2020 November election is approaching and with it questions arise:
How do I apply my faith to voting?
What issues are important to the Catholic Church?
How do I find out where my candidates stand on the issues?
What can Catholic parishes and schools do and not do when it comes to elections?
The North Dakota Catholic Conference has a resource for you at:
<http://www.yourfaithyourvote.org>

NEW NORMAL

For those people who are uncomfortable with coming to Mass, Fr. Casey will have the Sacred Host available for people to come into the church after Mass or he will bring it to your vehicle in the parking lot. This will take place during Mass about 30 min after the beginning.

LITURGY
ASSIGNMENT LIST

The assignment list for altar servers, Eucharistic ministers and ushers will be suspended until further notice. We will rely on volunteer lectors and Eucharistic Ministers for the Masses.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

“For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord’s.” – Romans 14:8
This is the essence of stewardship – everything we have and everything we are is a gift from God. We aren’t “owners” of anything, we are merely “stewards” of the gifts that God has given us, especially our very own lives. Pray to God, daily, and ask Him how He is calling you to live the life that He intended for you.

NEW PARISHIONERS

St. Rose would like to welcome any new parishioners to our parish. If you are new, or if you have been here awhile, and would like to register, please contact Liz Kritzberger, parish secretary or Carmen Henn, DRE.

POPE'S MORNING HOMILY: "HOW DOES THE WORLD GIVE PEACE, AND HOW DOES THE LORD GIVE IT?"

Before leaving the Lord greets His followers and gives the gift of peace, the Lord's peace: "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. It is not universal peace, that peace without wars that we all want there to be forever, but the peace of the heart, the peace of the soul, the peace that each one of us has inside. And the Lord gives it, but, He emphasizes, "not as the world gives". How does the world give peace and how does the Lord give it? Are they different forms of peace? Yes.

The world gives you "inner peace" – we are talking about this, peace in your life, living with your "heart at peace” – it gives you inner peace as if it were your own possession, like something that is yours and isolates you from others, that you keep for yourself, a personal acquisition: I am at peace. And without realizing it you close yourself up in that peace, it is a peace that is only for you, for each person; it is a solitary peace, it is a peace that makes you serene, even happy. And in this tranquility, in this happiness, it can lull you to sleep, it anaesthetizes you and makes you stay within yourself in a certain tranquility. It is a bit selfish: peace for me, closed up in myself. This is how the world gives it to you. It is a costly peace, because you must continually change the “instruments of peace”: when you are enthusiastic about something, one thing gives you peace, then it ends and you have to find another. It is costly because it is temporary and sterile.

Instead, the peace that Jesus gives is another thing. It is a peace that puts in in motion: it does not isolate you, it puts you in motion, it makes you go towards others, it creates community, it creates communication. The world’s peace is costly, whereas Jesus’s is freely given, it is free; it is a gift from the Lord, the peace of the Lord. It is fruitful, it always leads you forward.

An example from the Gospel that makes me think of what the world’s peace is like, is that man whose barns were full and whose harvest that year seemed to be very big, and thought: “I must build other warehouses, other barns to put this in, and then I will be fine...this is my tranquility, this way I can live serenely.. “You fool”, says God, “this night your life will be demanded of you”. It is a temporary peace that does not open the door to the hereafter. Instead the Lord’s peace opens to the place where He went it is open to Heaven, it is open to Paradise. It is a fruitful peace that is open and brings others with you as well to Paradise.

I think that it would help us to think a bit: what kind of peace do I have, where do I find peace? In things, in well-being, in travel – but nowadays one cannot travel – in possessions, in many things, or do I find peace as a gift from the Lord? Must I pay for peace or do I receive it freely from the Lord? What kind of peace do I have? When I am missing something, do I get angry? This is not the Lord’s peace. This is one of the tests. Am I calm in my peace, do I get “lulled to sleep?” It is not the Lord’s. Am I in peace and do I want to communicate it to others, do I want to accomplish something? That is the Lord’s peace! Even in bad or difficult moments, does that peace remain in me? It is the Lord’s. And the Lord’s peace is fruitful for me too, because it is full of hope, that is, it looks towards Heaven.

I received a letter from a priest, a good priest. And he said to me that I speak little about Heaven. I should speak about it more. And he is right, he is right. And because of this, I wanted to emphasize it today. That the peace Jesus gives us is a peace for today and for the future. It is beginning to live Heaven, with the fruitfulness of Heaven. It is not anaesthesia. The other peace is: you anaesthetize yourself with things of the world and when the dose of this anaesthetic wears off, you take another one, and another...This peace of Jesus is a definitive peace, fruitful and “contagious”. It is not narcissistic, because it always looks to the Lord. The other form of peace is about looking at yourself, it is a bit narcissistic.

May the Lord give us this peace, full of hope, that makes us fruitful, that makes us communicative with others, that creates community and that always looks to the definitive peace of paradise.

ON-LINE GIVING

During this trying time when we are not able to worship as a community, our parish still has expenses that we must deal with. Please consider going to our website: www.strosehillsboro.com to give a one time, weekly or monthly recurring amount from Goose River Bank or give via your credit card. After we are able to come together again, you may return to your usual way of giving. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Jordan Hjelle, webmaster of the site.
