LECTORS AND EUCCHARISTIC
MINISTERS

There will be a short training update for all veteran and new Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers at 5:30 pm at St. Rose on Wednesday, January 13, 2021. There are a couple of changes or updates for these ministries. It is important that we are all consistent in serving at the Mass. If you will be unable to attend this session, please contact Dcn. Curt Kaufman for the changes/updates and to receive a copy of the new ministry guides. Thank you for your service to St. Rose. Dcn. Curt, 701-430-3244; kaufmanci@hotmail.com; or curtis.kaufman@fargodiocese.org

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

“And a voice came from the heavens, ‘You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.’” – Mark 1:11

Through our baptism, we too, are daughters and sons of God. We are disciples of Jesus. As true disciples we are called to actively participate in our Catholic faith, not just be mere bystanders. This means working in collaboration with the Holy Spirit and discerning how we are being asked to use our gifts. Using our gifts for the benefit of others and not just for our own interests and comfort.

NEW PARISHIONERS

St. Rose would like to welcome any new parishioners to our parish. If you are new, or if you have been here awhile, and would like to register, please contact Liz Kritzberger, parish secretary or Carmen Henn, DRE.

NEW NORMAL

For those people who are uncomfortable with coming to Mass, Fr. Casey will have the Sacred Host available for people to come into the church after Mass or he will bring it to your vehicle in the parking lot. This will take place during Mass about 30 minutes after the beginning.

STAGE TWO OF OPENING

We will continue wearing masks and social distancing during Mass at St. Rose of Lima.

We will be easing back into scheduling readers and Eucharistic ministers at Mass. To be added to the volunteer lists, if you have not completed the survey, please contact Mary, stwilliamscc@live.com.

POPE AT ANGELUS: GOD LOVES US IN ALL OUR FRAILITY

Pope Francis reflects on how by making himself flesh, God united himself to humanity, loving us in all our frailty and inviting us to share everything with Him.

Pope Francis invited the faithful to invite God into their homes, their families, to share with Him their frailties and fears in order to allow Him to change their lives.

Speaking during the Angelus, the Pope contemplated the tenderness of the Child Jesus in the crib and reflected on the Gospel of John (Jn 1:1) explaining that especially in the prologue, “it tells us about Him before He was born.”

He said that the apostle uses similar words to those used in the Bible with the account of Creation, but says that today “the One we contemplated at His birth, existed before: before things began, before the universe. He existed before space and time “in Him was life” (Jn 1:4), before life appeared.”

GOD COMMUNICATES WITH US

The Pope noted that “Saint John calls Him the Logos, that is, the Word.” And the word, he added, serves to communicate “one does not speak alone, one speaks with someone.”

The fact that Jesus was, from the very beginning, the Word. Pope Francis continued, “means that from the beginning God wants to communicate with us. He wants to talk to us.”

The Son of the Father, Pope Francis explained, “wants to tell us about the beauty of being children of God,” he wants to remove the darkness of evil from us. “He is ‘the life’ who knows our lives and wants to tell us that He has always loved them.”

“Jesus is the eternal Word of God, who has always thought of us, and wanted to communicate with us,” he said.

HE BECAME FLESH TO DWELL FOR EVER AMONGST US

The Pope explained that thus, as the Gospel tells us, Jesus went beyond words, and indeed, “the Word became flesh and dwelt among us.”

He reflected on St. John’s choice of the word flesh, that indicates our human condition in all its weakness, in all its frailty.

“He tells us that God became fragile so He could touch our fragility up close,” he said.

“Revealing the wounds of His flesh to the Father,” the Pope said, “Jesus intercedes for us.”

From the moment the Lord took on flesh, Pope Francis explained, nothing of our life is extraneous to Him: “There is nothing that He scorns, we can share everything with Him.”

“Dear brother, dear sister. God became flesh to tell you that He loves you like that, in your frailty, right there, where you are most ashamed,” he said.

The Pope went on to detail how God did not turn back, “He did not put our humanity on like a garment that can be put on and taken off.” He never again detached Himself from our flesh. And He will never be separated from it.

He explained that, as the Gospel says, “He came to dwell among us. He did not come to visit us.”

OPEN YOUR HEARTS TO THE LORD

“What, then, does He desire from us?” the Pope added: “A great intimacy!”

He wants us to share with Him our joys and sufferings, he said, our desires and fears, hopes and sorrows, people and situations.

The Pope concluded exhorting the faithful to do just this, to open their hearts to Him and to tell Him everything.

“Let us pause in silence before the crib to savour the tenderness of God who became near, who became flesh. And without fear, let us invite Him among us, into our homes, into our families, into our frailties. He will come and life will change.”

POPE FRANCIS’ SPECIAL GREETINGS FOR THE NEW YEAR

Following the Angelus prayer Pope Francis renewed his good wishes for the year that has just begun to all. He said that as Christians, we know that things will only improve, with God’s help. If we work together for the common good, “putting the weakest and most disadvantaged at the center.”

“We do not know what 2021 will bring, but what each of us and all of us together can do, is to connect to taking care of each other and of creation, our common home,” he said.
