STEWARDSHIP
MOMENT “Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed...He told them, ‘Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also. For this purpose, have I come.’” - Mark 1:35, 38
In today’s Gospel reading, we see a perfect example of stewardship. Jesus gives His time to do all that God wishes – healing the sick and preaching. But before He begins, Jesus makes time to be alone with God in prayer. It is through prayer, spending time with God, that we find the strength to do what He wishes us to do. Be sure to find time every day to be with God.

POPE AT ANGELUS: POPE RECALLS WORD OF GOD SUNDAY, URGES ALL TO READ BIBLE.

Recalling the celebration of the Sunday of the Word of God, Pope Francis urges all Christians to carry a pocket Bible and to read a few verses every day.

As the Church celebrates the 2nd Sunday of the Word of God, Pope Francis launched an appeal to all the faithful to keep the Sacred Scripture close at all times and to read them frequently.

“One of the greatest gifts of our time is the rediscovery of Sacred Scripture in the life of the Church and the faithful,” he said at the Sunday Angelus address.

“Never before as today,” added the Pope, “has the Bible been so accessible to all and in all languages, now even in audiovisual and digital formats.”

CHRIST AND THE SCRIPTURES

Pope Francis also recalled a saying of St. Jerome, the great 5th century Biblical scholar and Doctor of the Church: “Whoever ignores the Scriptures ignores Christ.”

And, the Pope added, the reverse is also true: “It is Jesus Christ – the Word made flesh and Resurrected – who opens the mind to understand the Scriptures.”

He said we come to comprehend the Word of God especially in the liturgy, but also when we pray alone or in groups.

JOY OF THE GOSPEL

Pope Francis then thanked and encouraged the many parishes which seek to educate the faithful to listen to the Scriptures.

“May we never lose the joy of spreading the Gospel,” he said.

The Pope then repeated his frequent invitation for everyone to carry a small book of the Gospels in our pocket or purse.

And he urged us to read at least three or four verses of the Bible every day.
