The tradition of giving gifts at Christmas is thought by some to be rooted in the gift giving of the Magi. In many cultures, gifts are not exchanged at Christmas, but rather on the feast of the Epiphany. Whenever you exchange your Christmas gifts, take some time to reflect on this tradition of gift giving at Christmas. Think of the best gift you have received. What was it? What made it special? Was it the gift itself, the thought that went into it, or the person who gave it to you?

Read today's Gospel, Matthew 2:1-12. The gifts of the Magi—gold, frankincense, and myrrh—have come to be understood as symbols of Christ's royalty, divinity, and eventual suffering and death. They are special because in giving them, the Magi acknowledge who Jesus was to be: our Savior. We pray that we will acknowledge Jesus as Savior in all that we do and say. Conclude by singing together "We Three Kings."

Algunos piensan que la tradición de dar regalos en Navidad está enraizada en el obsequio de los Reyes Magos. En muchas culturas, los regalos no se intercambian en Navidad, sino en la fiesta de la Epifanía. Siempre que intercambie sus regalos de Navidad, tómese un tiempo para reflexionar sobre esta tradición de regalos en Navidad. Piensa en el mejor regalo que has recibido. ¿Qué era? ¿Qué lo hizo especial? ¿Fue el regalo en sí, el pensamiento que entró en él, o la persona que se lo dio?

Lea el Evangelio de hoy, Mateo 2: 1-12. Los dones del Magi-oro, el incienso y la mirra se han convertido en símbolos de la realeza, la divinidad y el sufrimiento y la muerte de Cristo. Son especiales porque al darles, los Magos reconocen quién era Jesús: nuestro Salvador. Oramos para que reconozcamos a Jesús como Salvador en todo lo que hacemos y decimos. Concluir cantando juntos "We Three Kings".
