As often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes.

1 Corinthians 11:26
Dear Parishioners,
I am very happy to announce as of this Memorial Day I am moving back into the Christ the King Parish house and am delighted to be here. I especially appreciate the positive response and welcome from Fr. Paulson. Recently when my doctor decided I could no longer live alone and the Diocese ruled I could not live with someone in a parish, I ended up at the Kensington behind Sprouts on Geary road. I have to say the people were great, the place was clean and the food was excellent. Even though I am moving away I am happy to recommend it to others. I am especially glad to be moving back to Christ the King which is really my home and place for ministry. Although my ministry will be very limited due to Parkinson’s and I will not be able to do mass, I will however be available for any emergency calls as well as taking part in the weekend confessions. I also hope to be involved in a very limited capacity with Adult Education particularly any movies in the upcoming fall. Again I am happy to be home and look forward to seeing all of you.

God Bless,
Fr. Brian Joyce

Join us for First Friday Mass on June 3 at our new time, 6:00 pm. Please note that during the summer months, June, July and August, we will not have exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, but we will have First Friday Mass at 6:00 pm.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
First Reading: Genesis 14:18-20
Today’s reading from the book of Genesis tells us all we know about an obscure king named Melchizedek. Abraham had just won a military victory, and Melchizedek honors him with a meal of bread and wine. Over the course of time, this meal was seen as a distant foreshadowing of the Eucharist, which is why this passage was chosen for today’s feast.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 11:23
The first letter to the Corinthians was written about 25 years after Christ’s death and resurrection. Today’s passage contains our earliest written account of what Jesus did at the Last Supper. It predates even the Gospels.
