Dear Friends,

We are commencing the season of Advent this Sunday. From Thanksgiving, which is centered on our family, we now move towards the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. Advent is a time of preparing ourselves for the incarnation, God becoming one of us.

Advent and the Christian Life: It is only in the shadow of Advent that the miracle of Christmas can be fully understood and appreciated; and it is only in the light of Christmas that the Christian life makes any sense. We can find in Advent a solution to the age-old problem of secular Christmas vs. spiritual Christmas. We recognize that Christmas is, most of all, a time to celebrate the birth of Jesus. It’s a holiday that focuses on the meaning of the Incarnation. Yet, given the secular traditions of Christmas, we spend most of our time preparing, not for a celebration of the birth of Jesus, but for fulfilling the demands of the season. We have to buy lots of presents for lots of people and make sure they are all wrapped and delivered. We have parties to attend and parties to host. We have relatives who come to visit or, alternatively, we are the relatives who go elsewhere to visit. Remember, God came to usher in the Kingdom of God with all of its blessings. His peace and justice will fill the earth. We can be part of Jesus’ mission this advent when we reach out to share our life with and care for people in need, for the hungry and homeless, for victims of injustice and oppression, for those who suffer from sickness or sadness. Advent can be a time to touch those in need, not only so that we might share God’s love with them, but also so that our yearning for the kingdom might be renewed within us.

Flu Season is here: As we are already into the flu season, we will be discontinuing the Cup starting the First Sunday of Advent until Easter. And if you are uncomfortable with shaking of hands, you could just say, “Peace be with you” to your neighbor without shaking of hands, and I am sure everyone will understand.

Does one receive the whole Christ if one receives Holy Communion under a single form? Yes! Christ Jesus, our Lord and Savior, is wholly present under the appearance either of bread or of wine in the Eucharist. Furthermore, Christ is wholly present in any fragment of the consecrated Host or in any drop of the Precious Blood. Nevertheless, it is especially fitting to receive Christ in both forms during the celebration of the Eucharist. This allows the Eucharist to appear more perfectly as a banquet, a banquet that is a foretaste of the banquet that will be celebrated with Christ at the end of time when the Kingdom of God is established in its fullness (cf. Eucharisticum Mysterium, no. 32).

Second Collection for Paradise, CA: Bishop Soto celebrated Mass Nov. 18 at St. John the Baptist Church in downtown Chico for all those affected by the Camp Fire. He especially invited the community of St. Thomas More Parish in Paradise; their church was in the direct line of fire. Many of St. Thomas’ parishioners have lost their homes. The Sacramento Diocese confirmed that the church and school buildings survived the fire. The new rectory, old rectory and parish hall were destroyed. The Society of St. Vincent de Paul and Northern Valley Catholic Social Service are working with partner organizations on local relief and recovery efforts. We will be having a second collection the weekend of December 15 & 16 to support our sisters and brothers affected by the fire. We shall restrict ourselves to a collection for now. We will be in touch with the parish in Paradise and Chico in the coming weeks to ascertain what we can do for them more substantially. I thank you for your generosity as always.
