As Jesus blessed his disciples, he parted from them and was taken up to heaven.

— Luke 24:51
Fellow Parishioners,
Tremendous energy and inertia commences and ends the school year; analogous to a train moving forward at the onset and a plane landing at the end. The month of May presents so many reminders of God’s promises and gifts as the flowers and trees burst with light, color, and life. In addition, this month envelopes Mary’s message of hope, peace, and prayer.

I was blessed to witness second grade students and their families receive the Holy Eucharist this month. First graders celebrating a mass in honor of our Holy Mother whereby they processed into church, as a class, carrying flowers and a crown beautifully chosen and planned. To witness our little ones read at the lectern is a reminder that each student has grown tremendously this school year as literacy is the focal point of first grade.

This past week our eighth grade group performed Shakespeare’s A Midsummer Night’s Dream in our school’s amphitheater. Their humor, drama, and creativity simply shined! In addition, graduation will occur as eighth graders have participated in their class retreat in Lafayette, completed a ropes course, enjoyed a trip to Six Flags Amusement Park, attended their celebratory graduation dance at Saint Agnes School, and prepared/presented salads from our Garden of Blessing in a competition very much like “chopped” as faculty and staff judged their efforts.

This week will envelope a Festival Talent Show and middle schoolers will scientifically dissect shark wings as well. One thing for certain, the learning and discovery is constant and much alive. As we approach the final days of school we look forward to celebrating a final mass to end the school year followed by a prayer of blessing coined as the “Launch”.

As I reflect on this school year so many blessings and initiatives have taken place. I thank God for a Pastor who is a brother and friend to me, for parish priests who are loving and kind, a faculty and staff that is committed and open to our vocation, parents who sacrifice their time and talent, and students who are an inspiration to us all.

The Christ the King community is truly amazing as parishioners and all community members have made me feel so welcome. Words cannot express my gratitude for all the kind gestures and support this school year. As I reflect back, I experienced the hand and heart of God.

I clearly see a community that loves God and serves God with humility, joy, and proclaims the Gospel often times without words. For this I am eternally grateful! :-)

Abundant blessings,
Mr. Silveira

Next weekend we celebrate the great feast of PENTECOST! Come to church wearing red – to add to the liturgical color reflecting the fire of the Holy Spirit!

Faith in Action Committee of our parish has been busy with the following projects:

Helping Hands - always on the third Monday of the month.

Winter Nights - served a great dinner to the wonderful families we hosted during Winter Nights.

Catholic Advocacy Day in Sacramento:

- Kathy Gannon Briggs, Gwen Watson and Antoinette Daniele went to Sacramento to advocate for Privacy – A faith-based organization of volunteers, teachers and professionals lifting children and families out of poverty. This was Gwen and Antoinette’s 20th year going to this special day.

- Our members attended vigils at the Sheriff’s office. Our Mission is: Hear the Gospel and Make a Difference

If you would like to volunteer, please contact kgannonbriggs4@gmail.com.

Thinking about a pilgrimage to the Holy Land?

Want to see & feel the Scriptures come alive? How about with Fr. Donie O’Connor as our priest, and parishioner Kathy Roberts as our Bible teacher? There is still room on Faith Journeys’ next trip to Israel Nov. 3-15 (optional Petra extension to Nov. 16).
