The Greatest Commandment

“You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.”

Dear Friends,

Among the many images most of us hold about the settling of the West, for me, pictures of the frontier outpost and stockades stand out. Scenes of such settlements being under attack, are especially familiar. From these early portrayals, it’s easy to understand how crucial to the settler’s survival these outposts and stockades were.

It is easy to imagine the scene. At the first sign of attack, a warning signal would be given, and everyone would run to the safety of the fort. Mothers hurried to gather their small children while men grabbed their weapons to take positions alongside the soldiers as older children quickly herded the farm animals behind the stockade’s protective walls. Once everyone and every necessity was inside, the huge gate was closed and locked. Then, people’s fears and anxieties eased as they realized they were behind the protection of the fort.

These stockades, therefore, stood as special symbols of security. Offering shelter in times of danger, they stood as a stronghold for the early settlers on a wild and perilous frontier.

This is the image of security that the Psalmist in Psalm 18, applies to God today. Though we are no longer in such continual danger of direct attack as the settlers once were, we know well, there are many situations and moments in our own time and place that bring about fear and anxiety, too. We need, as the early settlers did, a source of protection; a stronghold. The Psalmist here assures us that God is our stronghold. With God, we can feel truly safe. If, in faith, we turn to God, He will shelter and protect us.

This is the great reassurance given to us by a most loving and concerned God. So, in joyous relief and gratitude the Psalmist exclaims, “I love you, O Lord, my strength, O Lord, my rock, my fortress, my deliverer. My God, my rock of refuge, my shield, the horn of my salvation, my stronghold! Praised be the Lord, I exclaim, and I am safe from my enemies.”

We deeply share this sense of relief and gratitude with the Psalmist. We know we can rely on God, much more even than the Western settlers relied on the outposts and stockades. Whenever we find ourselves becoming anxious or threatened, we can be certain that God awaits us like the open gate of the stockade. God welcomes us into the security of his presence and care. Our faith assures that, with God, nothing can harm us. This then is our source of true peace. So, filled with the richness of this peace, we also journey exclaim, “I love you, my strength, O Lord, my rock, my fortress, my deliverer.”

Standing strong in the presence of the Lord, Father Denis

100 Women Who Care meeting
Monday, November 5, 6:30 p.m.
Genitti’s Theater (108 E. Main Street, Northville).

Started by three OLV parishioners 18 months ago, the Northville chapter of 100 Women Who Care has 140 members and has raised $80,000 for local charities, including Northville Civic Concern and Christ Child House. The organization meets once a quarter to hear presentations of three local charities (nominated by members). At the end of the one hour meeting, each woman votes for the charity of her choice. The charity with the most votes wins and is awarded $100 from each member. Charities to date have each received between $13,000 and $14,000! Please consider joining!

We meet 4 times per year in February, May, August and November. For more information, please visit www.100womenwhocarenorthville.weebly.com or our Facebook Page (100 Women Who Care-Northville).

$100 + 100 Women + 1 Hour = $10,000 Charity

Thank you OLV for a Successful Health Fair!

We collected 25 pounds of unused and expired medications to keep our community safe. We also partnered with CVS to provide flu shots for 58 parishioners. Thank you to all who stopped by to learn more about medication safety and substance abuse prevention.

If you still have unwanted medications—no liquids, needles or injectable medication—they can be dropped off 24/7 to a secure drop box in the lobby of the Northville Township Police Department, at 41600 Six Mile Road.

No questions asked.

Dominic’s Disciples

As part of the annual Mercy in Action Day (October 20), Dominic’s Disciples did yard work and sorted household items and clothes during the 2 1/2 hours they worked at the Outreach facility. Thanks to the many parishioners who volunteered their time and energy to this event. You are a shining light in our world!

The next Dominic’s Disciples date is Saturday, November 17. They plan to pack boxes of food for Thanksgiving distribution.

If you would like to join them, please email Nancy Tolkacz at nancytolkacz@att.net. The carpool/caravan leaves OLV at 8:45 a.m. and returns by 12:30 pm.

KNIGHTLY NEWS

Winter Coat Drive thru November 11

Winter is around the corner! The St. Dominic Outreach Center is in need of Winter Coats for Men, Women, and Children. Our Council will be collecting new or gently used, clean, winter coats and jackets this weekend and next, before and after all of the Masses. Any coats or jackets (any size and style) will be greatly appreciated! Helping the community is another great example of Faith in Action.

Let’s Start the Holiday Season with the Ring of that Little Bell!

Christmas will be here before you know it and one of the best ways to get into the spirit of the season is to spend just one hour of your time ringing The Salvation Army kettle bell in front of the Northville Post Office.

A sign-up board is in the Church Gathering Space. Bell ringing dates range from Friday, November 9 through Monday, December 24. We are only asking for one hour of your time, so please sign-up as soon as you can. Why not make it a family affair and help collect money for a wonderful organization that does so much for the needy. What would Christmas be without the ringing of that little bell?

If you have any questions, call Tony Albanese at (248) 425-5360 or Karen Martin at (248) 797-3888. Thank you!
In today’s Gospel (Mark 12: 28b-32), Jesus tells us: “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength, and you shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

Through your ongoing support of the OLV’s Society of St. Vincent de Paul Conference you demonstrate your love for our Lord and your love of those in our Northville community who are hungry, hopeless, alone and frightened.

Please join with us in the following pray:

O Lord, teach us how to love God with all our soul, with all our mind, and with all our strength, and our neighbor as ourselves. Amen

If you are interested in learning more about OLV’s St. Vincent de Paul Conference, please contact us by leaving your name and contact information on the OLV SVdP Hotline at (248) 349-2622 or e-mail to: stvincent@olvnorthville.net and a Vincentian will contact you. Or join us at our next meeting on Tuesday, November 13, at 7:00 p.m., in the St. John XXIII Room.
The Lord our God is Lord alone! - Mk12:29

It seems as though there are many things vying for our attention these days. Take the ads for Black Friday. You notice stores offering deals and steals until you look at the fine print. You have to shop between the hours of 4:00-8:00 a.m. to get 40% off. If you shop between the hours of 8:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m., you get a 35% discount. If you can’t get yourself out of bed until noon, you only get 20% off. However, if you spend a total of $100, you get 20% off, if you spend $150 then that’s 25% off. And if you are lucky enough to have a coupon, you have to wade through all brands and offers that it doesn’t apply to. You basically need patience and a calculator to decipher the best deal for you. By the time all is said and done, you would be happy to pay full price for your items just to move on! Not that I have had any experience with this, this is only what I have heard...

The fall of my son’s Junior year of High School, I began having conversations with experienced parents who have gone through the whole Senior year process. By the time I went home my head would be spinning and thinking my son’s a failure. Of course, he needs a tutor to prepare him for the ACT/SAT tests. Oh and be prepared for him to take it 3-5 times in order to obtain that perfect score. What do you mean he hasn’t taken it yet? It’s been so long ago, I am not sure if I took the ACT or the SAT but the only prep I remember doing was to sharpen my #2 pencils. There were two things I began to realize, the first, I had to stop talking to people unless they had some practical information for me. Secondly, just as I have my own journey, so does my son. It’s my job to guide him along his path to be the best he can, not to be perfect and with God’s help, He will show us the way.

The idea of what our society defines as success can be so overwhelming. We can be so obsessed with power, possessions, and prestige that they can become gods of their own. I have witnessed it for myself—people that have everything still can’t find happiness. Fear of losing everything can cripple people in such a way that it brings more harm than good to themselves. It begins by trusting in your Faith, trusting in Jesus’ teachings and letting go of the fear while being patient enough to let God do his work. Zack Williams has a song called “Fear is a liar”, it’s worth listening to.

Begin by putting things in place to keep God at the center. What do you watch on TV? What do you listen to on the radio? Who do you keep in your circle of friends? What about social media and the amount of time we spend on our phones? How distracted are you from God that you can’t hear Him? Individually, they may not seem to make much of a difference but collectively they can have a huge impact on the direction of your life. Small steps can lead to big changes.

I was recently as my parents’ house celebrating my sister’s birthday. As we were sitting around the table eating dinner, my dad, 89, had a look on his face. My sister leaned over, asking, “What is wrong Dad?” He looked up and said, “What possibly could be wrong? I have my family here, and we are all together.” It is the simple things that can bring about the most happiness.

The “Greatest Commandment” simply put, Love God with everything you have; heart, soul, mind and body and then Love your neighbor. Simple to say, not as easy to practice. Peter Scholtes’ song “They’ll Know We Are Christians By Our Love” written for an ecumenical and interracial service in the late 1960’s led by Scholtes, could be a model for loving your neighbor. After being a parish priest at St. Brendan’s in Chicago and working in the Chicago Civil Rights Movement, which greatly influenced him, Scholtes worked as a consultant in the public sector assisting businesses in helping their employees to improve and use their talents effectively. He wanted to influence businesses to treat their employees with dignity and was opposed to the practice of performance reviews which he thought was demoralizing. Are we ready to say we are Christians? Do we work with each other? Do we walk hand in hand with each other? Do we respect each person’s dignity? Do we do these because we love God?

Priestly Vocations

“Cultivating the Call,” a regional vocation gathering, will be held at the Church of the Divine Child in Dearborn on Thursday, November 8.

This night of prayer, testimony, and inspiration is for those who work closest with the Church’s future vocations as well as those who encounter potential vocations in their personal or ministerial lives.

National Vocation Awareness Week begins this Sunday. Thanks to your CSA gifts, the archdiocesan Office of Priestly Vocations is able to promote vocations through opportunities for understanding and discerning the Lord’s call. The office hosts discernment overnights and weekends at Sacred Heart Major Seminary as well as discernment days for junior high and high school students and these regional gatherings. It also provides outreach to parishes and schools and vocations literature, brochures, and prayer cards.

For more information about CSA-funded ministries, programs, and services, please go to www.AOD.org.
