

Name _____ Date _____

Your Vocation

This activity will help you reflect on the vocation to which God is calling you. Start by identifying some of the gifts God has given you.

Name two things that you can do especially well. Why are you good at them?

Name two things that you particularly enjoy doing. (These may or may not be the same things that you listed above.) Why do you enjoy doing them?

Name the one thing that you would most like to accomplish in life. Why is this goal so important to you?

Circle ways in which you would like to help people. (Circle as many responses as you like.)

teaching protecting or rescuing caring for people giving advice making or repairing things

Name some vocations that involve helping people in these ways.

How can you learn more about the vocations that interest you?
