

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

APRIL 11, 2021

FROM OUR PRIESTS' DESKS

Dear sisters and brothers of Sacred Heart:

When we were children, I remember being told by my parents, elders and teachers to say: I am sorry, and I forgive you. It was like a boot-camp for children, that me and my brothers must repeat these words [and actions] to one another until it became “a part” of our daily playing and living. Now, as an adult [hopefully I've grown-up], I treasure these experiences and teachings [drills] of asking for forgiveness and granting forgiveness to others.

Psalm 118

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, his love is everlasting...

Let those who fear the Lord say,
“His mercy endures forever.”

The Israelites of old have become aware of their evil acts and their sinful ways against the love of God and neighbors. Their evil acts produced negative consequences. Evil acts are never a good investment. It destroys the person who chooses it, and it destroys the relationship[s] with one another. It cuts-through one's connection with God and produces pain and sufferings in life, among many other things. But, God, sent his only begotten Son to take upon himself the great punishment for evil & sin, that the enduring mercy of the Father may be made known to all of us.

In this Sunday of Divine Mercy, let us truly give thanks to the Lord, for His everlasting love and His enduring mercy. Let us say to the Lord: I am sorry. And to those who have offended us: I forgive you, as God has forgiven me.

May I give this invitation to you: Let us learn to pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy [Mr. Google can assist us for info on this]. We can pray it daily [‘bout 10mins.] or whenever it is convenient for us. In this way, we become disciples of mercy, modeled upon Jesus the Divine Mercy. Amen.

Frs. Eric, Michael and John

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

Like newborn infants, you must long for the pure, spiritual milk, that in him you may grow to salvation, alleluia.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

Let the house of Israel say, “his mercy endures forever.” Let the house of Aaron say, “His mercy endures forever.” Let those who fear the Lord say, “His mercy endures forever.”

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. By the Lord has this been done; it is wonderful in our eyes. This is the day the Lord has made; let us be glad and rejoice in it.

HOLY MOTHER PRAY FOR US

Pray for us, loving Mother,
and gain for our nation and world,
and for all our families and loved ones,
the protection of your holy angels,
that we may be spared the worst of this illness.
For those already afflicted, we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance.
Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful,
wipe away their tears and help them to trust.
In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient and kind.
Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts.
We come to you with confidence,
knowing that you truly are our compassionate
mother,
health of the sick and cause of our joy.
Shelter us under the mantle of your protection,
keep us in the embrace of your arms,
help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus.
Amen.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Congratulations to Adam Reilly and Mark Reilly of Cub Scout Pack 23 for earning the Parvuli Dei emblem. The purpose of the Parvuli Dei (Children of God) emblem is to help young boys explore a wide range of activities in order to discover the presence of God in their daily lives as members of their families and parishes, and also to develop a good, positive self-image through the contributions they can make to the group or community.
