

28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OCTOBER 10, 2021

FROM OUR PRIESTS' DESKS

Dear Brothers and Sisters of Sacred Heart:

Remember the 'oldies but goodies' song by Jackie DeShannon during the tumultuous months of the year 1965:

What the world needs now is love, sweet love
It's the only thing there's just too little of
What the world needs now is love, sweet love
No not just for some, but for everyone...

Yes, you can sing it too, as I do also. It's a beautiful song, lyrics, and melody, reflecting the desires of the hearts of a people who have experienced great tumults nationally and worldwide. That true love, human and divine in origin, is what can quench the desires of the human heart, broken by constant struggles in this world of ours. At the near end of the song, the singer pleads in a form of a prayer:

There are sunbeams and moonbeams enough to shine

Oh listen, Lord, if you want to know...

Thousands of years ago, before the American Top 40, a broken people uttered the same prayers and hymns to the Lord, the source and the font of unconditional love:

Psalm 90

Fill us with your love, O Lord and we will sing for joy!

Fill us at daybreak with your kindness, that we may shout for joy and gladness all our days.

Make us glad, for the days when you afflicted us, for the years when we saw evil.

As of the days of past, we still live in this world of passing things with an abundance of uncertainty and sufferings. There are many things beyond our control in the local, national and worldly scene. But surely, we can pray and sing. And we can ask the Lord to fill us with His love, a love that is patient and kind, a love that is merciful and forgiving, a love that is compassionate and long-suffering for others...a love that flows forth from His Sacred Heart. I invite you, let us pray and sing to the Lord today. Amen

Fr. Eric Creencia, OAR

Fr. John Gruben, OAR

Fr. Michael Rafferty, OAR

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? But with you is found forgiveness, O God of Israel.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

Teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain wisdom of heart. Return, O Lord! How long? Have pity on your servants!

Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

Let your work be seen by your servants and your glory by their children; and may the gracious care of the Lord our God be our; prosper the work of our hands for us! Proper the work of our hands!
