2021 Fall Festival FAQ's

What will my donations be used for?

The purpose of the annual Fall Festival is to raise funds for our Church, School and Young Child Center. This year, Fund A Need donation will support updating our gym and parish hall. In addition to several cosmetic updates to the school Gymnatorium, the sound system will be completely updated! A much-needed refresh to our beloved Parish Hall will include new flooring, lighting and ceiling tiles. Both the Gym and the Parish Hall are important gathering spaces that are used regularly by the school, young child center and church!

Can you provide me more information on the Fall Festival Fiesta tailgate and concert?

The Fall Festival Fiesta is the celebration in-person event that will take place on Saturday evening, October 2nd from 6 pm -8:30 pm in the north parking lot of St. Ann. Much like last year, this will be an outdoor tailgate with a concert, featuring G Tent, Ted McDonald, a St. Ann parishioner's band. For 2021 we are excited to add more attendees to mingle and the addition of Crave Taco Truck as well as 2 bars, serving beer and wine!

The Fiesta will also include a tented area that will have multiple tables for those that want to sit and eat, visit and mix with other attendees. Tickets to the Fiesta will be sold on bid pal for $65.00 per person and will include the entrance to the concert, 3 Crave Tacos, beer and/or wine. Six Premier Parking Spaces will be available for purchase on bidpal for an additional $50.00. The premier spaces will be located directly across from the concert stage.

All attendees will enter using the Windsor drive entrance between 6 pm and 6:30pm on Saturday, October 2nd. Gates will close at 6:30 pm ensuring that the parking lot is clear of any moving cars. Carpooling is encouraged and please feel free to bring lawn chairs, tables, food and drink!
