TWENTY NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“WINNINGEST COACH” DON SHULA, A DEDICATED CATHOLIC
DIES AT AGE 90

Aleteia / John burger / May 4, 2020

The Miami Dolphins' record-setting leader was the product of a Jesuit education and later became a generous supporter of Catholic Schools. Don Shula, who died Monday at the age of 90, is being remembered as the “winningest coach in NFL history.” Shula spent much of his retirement working to make sure that youngsters at his Catholic parish in South Florida would be the winningest students. The Miami Dolphins, the team he coached from 1970 to 1995, issued a statement saying that Shula died “peacefully at his home.”

Fr. Juan Sosa, pastor of St. Joseph Parish on Miami Beach, told Aleteia that Shula attended daily Mass for years, including the early Mass on Sundays. When I arrived 10 years ago, I met him as one of our parishioners, unpretentious, very devoted and faithful to his commitment as a Christian and a Catholic,” Fr. Sosa said in a statement Monday. “Later on, he became more physically dependent and he came with his family to Christmas and Easter celebrations. He reiterated his characterization of him as “unpretentious.” “He did what God wanted him to do and fulfilled his vocation,” Fr. Sosa said. He said that when a documentary was being made about him and the Dolphins several years ago, “he mentioned that he once, as a young man, wanted to become a priest. His pastor was very influential in the discernment. Fr. John Dearden, of whom he always spoke with great respect and love,” went on to become a cardinal, as Archbishop of Detroit. But he went on to play football instead, beginning when he attended John Carroll University near Cleveland on a football scholarship. Born in Ohio, Donald Francis Shula grew up in a Catholic family of seven children, which included a set of triplets. In his 1995 book Everyone's a Coach, Shula wrote that he “learned his faith from his parents” and they never missed Mass on Sunday. He attended St. Mary's Catholic school in Painesville and graduated from John Carroll, where he became close to the Jesuits on the faculty there, according to a 2014 Catholic News Service article. Later, he endowed the Don Shula chair in philosophy at the university.

Shula played seven seasons as a defensive back in the NFL after being drafted by the Cleveland Browns in 1951. He also played for the Baltimore Colts and Washington Redskins. In 1963, Shula began coaching the Colts, becoming the youngest NFL coach at age 33. He led the Colts to Super Bowl III, though they lost to the New York Jets. Shula in 1970 signed on with Miami and ended up coaching 26 seasons before retiring after the 1995 season.

“Coach Shula, as everyone knew him, was simple, faithful to others, and a good servant,” Fr. Sosa told Aleteia. “He and Mary Anne, his wife, were instrumental in the final construction of St. Joseph's School and have been very supportive of the scholarship granted every year to an 8th grader who may wish to pursue his/her high school education in an archdiocesan high school.” Fr. Sosa had told Catholic News Service in 2014 that the community knew the Shulas for their dedication to reconciliation and peace at various times in Miami's history and for their commitment to Catholic schools.

News of Shula's death on Monday was greeted with accolades in the sports world. “Don Shula was the patriarch of the Miami Dolphins for 50 years,” the Dolphins' statement said. “He brought the winning edge to our franchise and put the Dolphins and the city of Miami in the national sports scene.”

“Today is a sad day,” Dolphins president Tom Garfinkel said in a statement. “Coach Shula was the rare man who exemplified true greatness in every aspect of his life. He will be so missed by so many but his legacy of character and excellence will endure.” Shula led the Dolphins to six Super Bowls, winning two of them in 1972 and 1973. The first victory came at the end of an unprecedented season with no losses for the Dolphins. It remains the league's only perfect season. He won an NFL-record 347 games, including playoff games, said ESPN. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1997.

Shula was “a tactician and taskmaster who built some of the most fearsome defenses and explosive offenses in league history,” according to the New York Times' Ken Belson. After his career, Shula started the Don Shula Foundation for Breast Cancer Research in memory of his first wife, Dorothy, who died from the disease.”

PONDERINGS FROM FATHER BILL

Roughly two decades ago I wrote a letter to legendary head coach Don Shula, most famous for his twenty-five years at the helm of the Miami Dolphins. His close attachment to the Catholic faith was quite impressive to me, even more than his success in the National Football League. He had a reputation of not being very responsive to autograph requests, but I took a gamble as a priest thinking he would respond to me. He did in a gracious way. I also have engaged numerous times with the family of Garo Yepremian, the late placekicker with the Dolphins under Shula. Garo was also a devout adherent of the Armenian Orthodox Church. His wife Maritza told me recently that he had considered the priesthood at one point, before God brought them together in marriage. I do not worship them as football players, but certainly respect their deep faith both now fulfilled in Heaven. Father Bill

Today

TWENTY NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 45:1, 4-6

Cyrus, King of Persia and friend to the Jewish people, becomes the Lord's anointed one, and through God's intervention, returns the Jews to their own country.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b

Paul rejoices that the Thessalonians, newly converted to Christianity, are displaying remarkable constancy in their new-found faith.

Gospel: Matthew 22:15-21

Seeking to entrap Jesus in his speech, the hostile and hypocritical Pharisees ask him this dangerous question, "Is it lawful to pay tax to the emperor or not?" Realizing their treacherous motives, Jesus asks for a Roman coin, and pointing to the inscription of Caesar's, he answers, "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's, but give to God what is God's."

Fellow Parishioners -- as the Fall season approaches, it is imperative that we wear a facial mask while attending both daily mass and the Sunday Liturgy. The CDC has stressed the importance of wearing masks to curb the spread of the virus. Remember the mask is to cover your face and not be pulled down on your chin. Please let's work together to keep one another safe during these uncertain times. Thank you for your cooperation in this matter and God Bless us all.

Please remember the following members of the armed service in your prayers.

OPENING OF 2021 MASS BOOKS

Mass books for both churches are now open for the 2021 calendar year.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Today (October 17-18) is World Mission Sunday. We are called through our Baptism to be a part of the Church's missionary efforts, through prayer, self-sacrifice and support of the Mission Church through material aid.

This year, Pope Francis asks us to respond to that call, saying, "Here I am, Send Me!" To "send" ourselves, we can:

Pray for the Church's worldwide missionary work

OFFER financial HELP and CHARITY through the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith for the vulnerable communities throughout Asia, Africa, Latin America and the Pacific Islands.

Msgr. Henry O' Carroll Council #444 of the Knights of Columbus in Newburgh is excited to announce that we are starting a Family of the Month program. This program will involve our four churches: Sacred Heart, St. Francis, St. Patrick's, and Our Lady of the Lake, which we support on many levels. Each month, one family will be selected with the help of the parish priest.

Churches and the months for the award:

Sacred Heart – July, September, and March

St. Francis – August, December, and April

St. Patrick's - October, January, and May

Our Lady of the Lake – November, February, and June

This will allow three families per church per year. At the end of the year one family from the group of 12 will be selected as Family of the Year. The family selected does not need to be a member of the Knights of Columbus. There are seven items that will be considered for the family selection.

Is the family supportive of each other?

Does the family spend quality time together?

Does the family attend weekly mass together?

Does the family pray together outside of mass?

Has the family made significant contribution to the parish and church community?

Does the family serve as a role model of Catholic family values? There are no fees involved. Each family selected will receive a certificate and a gift from Msgr. Henry O' Carroll Council that will be given out at a specified mass.

There are forms you can fill out to nominate your family or another family you think would be deserving of the award. The form will be near a box in the back of each church where you can drop it off, or you can contact us by email at kofcbowler444@gmail.com, or you can call Bill Kuntz with any questions at 201-697-9920.

Thank you for your interest. Good luck to all families, and God bless all.
