10 Questions For Personal Reflection As Coronavirus Lockdown Ends

Aleteia / Mathilde De Robien / June 11, 2020

"Let's not let this opportunity for insight and growth pass by without taking advantage of it."

"What have we been through? What changes do we want to keep?" Fr. Pierre-Andre Chevaux, a parish priest in Lyon, France, came up with a questionnaire to help us see how the Holy Spirit has acted in our lives during shelter-in-place orders. He urges us not to treat the months we've spent in our homes as a "parenthesis" in our lives, after which we return to the way things were before.

In order for this experience to help us grow, Fr. Chevaux challenges us to reflect on our personal experiences over recent months, especially focusing on what decisions and resolutions we could make for the future. Comparing the period of confinement to a kind of exile, he invites each of us to examine our relationship with God, and to recognize the presence of the Lord in our life. "God is with us during all the events of our life, and HE gives them meaning," the priest says, but we have to take the time and the distance necessary to reflect on these events. He proposes three levels of reflection: in relation to ourselves, to others and to God. These 10 questions can help with the process.

Our relationship with ourselves

1. During this time of being confined at home, what did I learn/discover about myself? This might include my relationship to time, property, my body, my health, my activities, loneliness, etc.
2. What were my joys? Perhaps make a special note of one or more moments worth remembering.
3. What were my difficulties/sorrows? Name my emotions, my thoughts, and perhaps my regrets.

Our relationship with others

4. What person comes to mind spontaneously when I think back on the past two months? Why?
5. What new type or level of relationship have I discovered or developed? Have my relationships been enriched or deepened? Did I suffer because I missed someone in particular?
6. Have I (re)discovered limitations in the way I live my relationships (family, friends, co-workers)?
7. What decision(s) does this time of confinement invite me to make in the way I live my relationships with others from now on?

Our relationship with God

8. How did I perceive the presence of God during this time of confinement? What place have I given to the Word of God? What words of Scripture particularly affected me during this time of confinement?
9. How did I experience this time of forced abstinence from sacraments (Eucharist, Reconciliation)? What desire or awareness did it foster in me?
10. To what does this time of confinement invite me to pay attention, in terms of renewing personal and community prayer (listening to the Word of God, adoration, praise, commitment to parish life linked to the Eucharist)?

We can take some time to answer these questions, and either keep them to ourselves or share them with others. We might receive interesting inspiration or ideas if we discuss these questions with someone close to us, or with a spiritual director. Let's not let this opportunity for insight and growth pass by without taking advantage of it. God speaks to us through the events and people in our lives, even (or perhaps especially) through difficult situations that challenge us."

PONDERINGS FROM FATHER BILL

What amazed me during the time of the pandemic was the parish projects that I was able to complete, with the steady help of others, or at least initiate. At Sacred Heart there was a black topping of the school/rectory/church parking lots, and the development of a prayer garden concept on the grounds that once were occupied by two fire-damaged buildings. Health and security measures were implemented at both churches, plus the effort to have media systems installed within the parish for use at Mass. A pressing issue is making further use and rental of Sacred Heart School. At Saint Francis of Assisi contracts were procured to secure the property in a challenging neighborhood, while establishing a regular routine of pruning its many bushes. At Saint Francis Cemetery the roadways are scheduled to be repaired. Your generosity helps me much. Father Bill

TODAY
SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

First Reading: Isaiah 40:1-5, 9-11

Isaiah emphasizes that from the desert to the mountains, all people must prepare for “the glory of the Lord to be revealed.” Rather than looking only at God’s power, Isaiah focuses on God’s kindness, comparing it to a shepherd who feeds and cares for his flock.

Second Reading: 2 Peter 3:8-14

For those who are impatient for the Second Coming, Peter explains that time is different to God than to people. He reminds them that they should be grateful for the extra time to prepare, and concentrate on striving to become all that God would want them to be.

Gospel: Mark 1:1-8

In this passage, John the Baptist stressed the importance of the coming of the Messiah. He acknowledged that he was only the messenger, and unfit to “stoop and untie his sandal straps.” John urged them to prepare for one far holier than he, who would walk among them.

Fellow Parishioners – with the cold and flu season, as well as coronavirus hitting all at the same time, it is imperative that we wear a facial mask while attending both daily mass and the Sunday Liturgy. The CDC has stressed the importance of wearing masks to curb the spread of the virus. Remember the mask is to cover your face and not be pulled down on your chin and bring hand sanitizer for your own personal use. Please let’s work together to keep one another safe during these uncertain times. Thank you for your cooperation in this matter and God Bless us all.
