

JMJ

Dear Parishioners,

Today, the Fourth Sunday of Easter and “Good Shepherd Sunday”, is the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. All the faithful are exhorted to pray especially for vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life.

Let us ask for the gift of perseverance for all priests: may they stay faithful to prayer, celebrate Holy Mass with ever renewed devotion, live listening to the Word of God and day after day assimilate the same sentiments and attitudes as those of Jesus, the Good Shepherd.

Let us then pray for those who are preparing to take on the priestly ministry and for the teachers who form them in the seminaries of Dunwoodie and the whole world. Let us pray for families, so that the “seed” of the call to the presbyteral ministry may continue to mature and flower.

All the baptized are called to contribute to the work of salvation. In the Church, however, there are some vocations which are dedicated especially to the service of communion.

The person primarily responsible for Catholic communion is the Pope, Successor of Peter and Bishop of Rome; with him, the Bishops, successors of the Apostles, are custodians and teachers of unity, assisted by the priests. But consecrated persons and all the faithful are also at the service of communion.

At the heart of Church communion is the Eucharist: the different vocations draw from this supreme Sacrament the spiritual power to build constantly, in charity, the one ecclesial Body.

Let us now turn to Mary, Mother of the Good Shepherd. May she who responded promptly to God’s call, saying: “Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord”, help all of us to accept with joy and willingness Christ’s invitation to be his disciples, always motivated to be “of one heart and soul”.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Father Newcomb

One of our young parishioners, Delani Ennis, will be going on a mission trip to Vero Beach, Fl. She will be ministering to and assisting low income elderly, preschools, migrant workers, and at risk youth. Certain parts of Vero Beach has sections where most live below the poverty line and many are homeless. It is her plan to minister and assist in teaching preschool age children, tutoring many at risk youth, provide activities to keep them busy during our time there, assist in odd jobs and tending to the elderly.

On the final day, they will host an ice cream “block party” for the under privileged community in an attempt to share joy and hope for all through the gospel. While there she will also be receiving the necessary training and skills to bring home and continue to serve our mission with them in Florida, as well as, serve our local communities right here in Port Jervis. I personally am so excited to be able to share the word of God and Christ’s love with those who need it most. Before she leaves, she is attempting to get supplies to take with her. These items include but are not limited to diapers and wipes, snacks for the preschool program, glass cleaner wipes for the elderly, nail polish and manicure kits, bowls, plastic utensils, and ice cream toppings. Cash and/or gift cards to purchase the supplies when we get there are also wonderful. For anyone who is crafty, any handmade cards, bookmarks, bracelets, etc. are appreciated and highly encouraged. Any items that would symbolize our faith, be an uplifting, and open doors for those we are serving is always a blessing. Delani has personally always wanted to go on a mission but never knew where to start or how to go about it. It is her hope that this is will be her first step in serving where God may lead her throughout the world.

Thank you all for your generosity and assistance in helping make this happen. We will collecting items in the parish office until June 3rd.

Next Sunday, May 19th is the All You Can Eat Breakfast This will be the last one until September 2019!
