

JMJ

Dear Parishioners,

Today, we celebrate the great feast of Pentecost, in which the liturgy has us relive the birth of the Church, according to what Saint Luke narrates in the book of the Acts of the Apostles.

Fifty days after Easter, the Holy Spirit descended on the community of disciples - “with one accord devoted themselves to prayer” - gathered with “Mary, the mother of Jesus” and with the Twelve Apostles. We can therefore say that the Church had its solemn beginning with the descent of the Holy Spirit.

In this extraordinary event we find the essential and qualifying characteristics of the Church: the Church is one, like the community at Pentecost, who were united in prayer and “concordant”: “were of one heart and soul”.

The Church is holy, not by her own merits, but because, animated by the Holy Spirit, she keeps her gaze on Christ, to become conformed to Him and to His love.

The Church is catholic, because the Gospel is destined for all peoples, and for this, already at the beginning, the Holy Spirit made her speak all languages.

The Church is apostolic, because, built upon the foundation of the Apostles, she faithfully keeps their teaching through the uninterrupted chain of episcopal succession.

What is more, the Church by her nature is missionary, and from the day of Pentecost the Holy Spirit does not cease to move her along the ways of the world to the ends of the earth and to the end of time.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Father Newcomb
