TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Genesis 2:18-24 The two of them become one flesh.

Psalm 128 "May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives."

Hebrews 2:9-11 He who consecrates and those who are being consecrated all have one origin.

Mark 10:2-16 or 10:2-12 Therefore, what God has joined together, let no human being separate.

Today's Scripture passages from Genesis and the Gospel of Mark reveal images of faithful love between spouses. The Gospel goes farther, including children in the equation. Listening to these readings today, let us be mindful of those whose marriages are a source of anguish, as well as families whose children are not cared for and respected as they deserve. Let us open ourselves to the power of God's living word to transform us all into faith-filled witnesses to God's great works in all our human relationships.

MANY THANKS

A very special thank you to Jim Dowdle of Edwards Dowdle Funeral Home for his donation of the Pope Francis Prayer Cards.

COMMUNICATIONS

We will have fewer announcements before Mass, so please read the bulletin to keep informed or check our webpage regularly: www.stmolph.com

Please sign up for Flocknotes!

Recently we were able to send up to date information to parishioners about the Papal tickets through Flocknotes even though the information came to us after the bulletin was printed.

If you can't get our webpage, get Flocknotes, and make sure to take the bulletin and READ it. Don't expect to be informed by announcements at Mass.

PRO-LIFE PRAYER

October is Respect Life Month. Please pray for the protection of life from conception to natural death.

O Mary, Mother of Jesus and Mother of us all, born and unborn, we turn to you today as the one who said "Yes" to Life. Despite your surprise and uncertainty as to how this could be, you accepted God's Will. Mary, we pray today for all mothers and fathers who may feel apprehensive and overwhelmed by their pregnancy. Intercede for them, that God may give them the grace to say yes and the courage to go on. May they have the grace to reject the lie of abortion. May they say with you, "Be it done unto me according to Your Word." Help also the Pro-Life movement that all people will come to value human life as God's precious gift to be accepted and loved rather than a burden to be destroyed. Through your intercession may your Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, bring about His definitive triumph of life over death. Amen.
