Scripture Reflection

You are anxious - one thing is needful"

Anxiety and preoccupation keep us from listening and from giving the Lord our undivided attention. The Lord bids us to give him our concerns and anxieties because he is trustworthy and able to meet any need we have. His grace frees us from needless concerns and preoccupation. Do you seek the Lord attentively? And does the Lord find a welcomed and honored place in your home?

The Lord Jesus desires that we make a place for him, not only in our hearts, but in our homes and in the daily circumstances of our lives as well. We honor the Lord when we offer to him everything we have and everything we do. After all, everything we have is an outright gift from God. Paul the Apostle urges us to give God glory in everything: "Whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him."

When you sit, eat, sleep and when you entertain your friends and guests, remember that the Lord Jesus is also the guest of your home. Scripture tells us that when Abraham opened his home and welcomed three unknown travelers, he welcomed the Lord who blessed him favorably for his gracious hospitality. The Lord wants us to bring him glory in the way we treat others and use the gifts he has graciously given to us. God, in turn, blesses us with his gracious presence and fills us with joy. Copyright 201, Don Schwager: www.dailyscripture.net.Reprinted with permission be canonized and is considered the patron saint of immigrants.

You shall love the Lord, your God...and your neighbor as yourself. – Luke 10:27

GROWING IN FAITH - JULY ISSUE:

In Luke 11:1-13, Jesus teaches his disciples the Our Father. There are actually four parts to this prayer. It is in part an acknowledgement of God’s providence. This means that when we pray the Our Father, we are admitting that God knows and wants what is best for us. That he always answers our prayers, whether the answer is yes, no or to wait.

The July issue of Growing in Faith is available in our church vestibule. Take a copy home - share your faith with others!

God has imprinted on all created things His traces, trials and footsteps.

-- St. Francis de Sales
