Reflections for Fourth Sunday of Advent

This Sunday we read the story of the angel Gabriel's announcement to Mary about the birth of Jesus. We reflect upon Mary's example of faith and obedience to God, traits which permitted her to receive the angel's message that God's Son would be born as a human person, as one of us.

We are familiar with the story of the Annunciation, and it is fitting that we recall how God announced the birth of Jesus as we make our final preparations for our celebration of the Incarnation. The angel Gabriel visited Mary, a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph. Mary greeted the angel's news with awe and wonder and asked how it could be possible that she could give birth to a child. In his reply, the angel Gabriel announced the seemingly impossible reality: the child to be born would be conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and would be God's own Son. The angel reported to Mary another miracle; her relative Elizabeth was also pregnant despite having been thought to be unable to have a child. Mary's response to the angel, which is called her fiat, is an example of complete faith and obedience to God.

The story of the Annunciation calls to our attention God's wondrous action in human history. God chose a human person to give birth to his Son so that all humanity would know God's salvation. Mary, already full of God's grace, was able to cooperate in this great plan for our salvation. Thus Jesus was born as one of us, fully human and also fully divine. This is the mystery we prepare to celebrate at Christmas, the mystery of the Incarnation. We pray that we will be people of faith who recognize God's saving plan for us.Loyola Press

RCIA CORNER

Anticipation and preparedness are the watchwords for this Sunday of Advent. Anticipation of the celebration of the birth of our Lord some 2000 years ago and the festivities, gifts, parties and family get-togethers which accompany that celebration. Preparedness because we are reminded that Jesus will come at the end of the world (the parousia) and all will be judged – not just on whether they believed or not, but how they have lived out their belief. Are the end times near? No one knows but the Father. We must always be ready because our personal parousia can come at any time.

This Thursday we will celebrate Christmas. The beautiful hope of the world. All this penance has brought us much joy as we celebrate Christmas “Today in Bethlehem is born the Savior of the World”.

If you know of anyone who has not been baptized, or has not entered into full communion with the Catholic Church please have them contact Dale Zanetti in the Adult Faith Formation office at 732-477-7059 ext. 214 or email dale@visitationchurch.com

COPING WITH THE HOLIDAYS AFTER LOSS

As you approach this Holiday Season, you may be fearful of a painful reminder of loss rather than the celebration it once was. Holidays touch us on a deep and emotional level. It's not unusual that for the first or second holiday following a loss, you might be lacking enthusiasm or you might be feeling numb- dreading the event and wishing you can skip it completely.

Here are some tips that may be helpful for you in the upcoming weeks.

Prepare for episodes of grief. Alter activities that may seem too painful.

Be assured that these reactions are normal and that the pain fades as the years pass – although it may never go away completely.

Look for healing opportunities. In many cases, the anticipation can be worse than the reality.

Reminisce about the relationship you had with the person who died. Try to focus on the good things about the relationship and the time you had together rather than the loss.

Start a new tradition in your loved one's memory.

Connect with others. Draw family members and friends close to you, rather than avoiding them. Find someone who encourages you to talk about your loss. Stay connected to your usual support systems.

Allow yourself to feel sadness and a sense of loss. But also allow yourself to experience joy and happiness also. You may find yourself laughing and crying at the same time!

Create a Day of Rest and Relaxation. Tune out the holiday hustle and bustle and focus on your needs. Nurture yourself emotionally, physically, and spiritually. Provide care and comfort for yourself. Take a walk, get a massage, light a candle, read a book or go to a movie. Start a journal.

Be loving to yourself and listen to your inner self.

THE KING IS COMING!

The King is coming! The King is coming! This is a cry we heard during the season of Advent. Yes, the King did come, not as a person of worldly power and might, but as a helpless child. Isn't it interesting that Christ's coming was the result of a choice? Mary, His Mother, was given a choice. Will she or will she not agree to accept Jesus as her child and bring him into the world? We too are given a similar choice. Each of us has to decide to accept or reject Jesus as our Lord and Savior, not only at Christmas, but each moment of our lives. Choosing Jesus is an ongoing decision, not one just for the Christmas season. We are continually faced with choices on how we wish to live our lives. Do we live them as followers of the teachings and examples of Jesus Christ, or as followers of the allurements of the world? These choices are not always easy. Temptations are not meant to be. But, they are there for us to demonstrate our love for God.

What does it mean to choose Jesus Christ? It simply means we are to live as Jesus did--we are to love others as He loved us. And, according to Christ, even to those who don't like us. That's real hard to do, but we have to do it and we can by asking for help to love those people that we know are hard to love. We are to forgive everyone, just as God forgave each of us through the sacrifice of His Son. Jesus was born through Mary and she shared Him with the world. Jesus is also to be born in us and we are to share Him with the world. One way we can do this is to share the message of hope through Jesus Christ. That should have been our Christmas message. As the angels that first night proclaimed and gave glory to Christ—we are to go forth and do the same--bringing the message of hope to those that we know are hurting. Tell them to bring Jesus into their lives. It doesn't mean their troubles will go away--that their cancer will disappear or their jobs will be restored, although that can happen--but through Christ they will receive an enduring grace of comfort, a peace not possible from any other source.

Jesus gave us not only examples and teachings that we can follow but He also gave us the graces that we need to choose the Jesus life-style. Every time we receive the Eucharist we are celebrating Christmas—the coming of the Christ Child into our hearts and souls. St. Francis and the Saints of our Church were well aware of this. That is why they dedicated their lives to choosing Jesus Christ. They really believed what Jesus said: "Announce the kingdom! Possess no gold or silver or copper in your purses, no traveling bag, no sandals, no staff" (see Luke 9:1-3). Each, according to their capabilities, accepted this message almost as if it was there mantra. Their primary motivation was to become one with Jesus and to be as Jesus in their relationship with others. Rather than expecting to receive, as so many do during the Christmas season, their goal was to give of themselves to others as they felt Jesus would do.

Four weeks of Advent were scarcely enough to "prepare the way of the Lord". Christ's coming must be considered as a reality, which can be accomplished in how we live our lives, not a commercial experience or a pastoral scene. As we move beyond the Christmas season, let us ask ourselves how we can be a present to others through our presence in their lives every day of the year.

WE WOULD LIKE TO EXTEND A VERY SPECIAL THANK YOU TO THE MENNONITES. FOR SEVERAL WEEKS THEY LEFT THEIR HOMES IN PENNSYLVANIA TO COME HERE AND ASSIST THE MANY PEOPLE IN OUR AREA STILL AFFECTED BY SUPERSTORM SANDY.

WHILE THEY WERE HERE, IN THE WEE HOURS OF THE MORNING AND INTO THE DARK HOURS OF THE EVENING, (BEFORE AND AFTER WORK) THEY REPLACE THE ROOF ON THE OLD CHURCH WHICH WAS VERY MUCH IN NEED OF REPLACING. MAY GOD BLESS YOU AND YOUR FAMILIES DURING THIS HOLY SEASON.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL THRIFT STORE WILL BE CLOSED FOR THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAY DECEMBER 25-DECEMBER 28. THE STORE WILL REOPEN ON MONDAY DECEMBER 29 AT 8:30 AM. THE MEMBERS OF ST. VINCENT WOULD LIKE TO THANK YOU FOR YOUR PATRONAGE THROUGHOUT THE YEAR AND WISH YOU AND YOUR FAMILIES A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR!

SOLEMNITY OF CHRISTMAS (DAWN) DECEMBER 25

This Mass is sometimes called the "Shepherd's Mass." In ancient times, pilgrims to Bethlehem celebrated Midnight Mass at the site of the Nativity, at the Church built over the cave where Jesus was born. They then returned to Jerusalem. They arrived at dawn and celebrated another Mass at the Church of St. Anastasia (In Greek, "Anastasia" means "resurrection"). The dawn reminded them of the resurrection as well as the dawning of the Son of God. Our Responsorial Psalm refrain is "A light will shine on us this day; the Lord is born for us." Christ's light comes to us ("appears") through baptism (2nd reading). We need to ponder the glorious message, as Mary did after the shepherds left.
