Reflections for
The Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Cross of Courage
Matthew 10:26-33

We read today’s Gospel in the context of last week’s Gospel in which Jesus sent the twelve disciples to proclaim the kingdom of heaven. In between last week’s reading and today’s reading, Jesus has predicted that the disciples will face difficulties in their mission. Many people will not receive them well, even within the land of Israel. Even family members will turn away from the disciples because of the disciples’ commitment to Jesus and the kingdom. Today’s Gospel offers the disciples consolation against this difficult truth.

This section of Matthew’s Gospel should be read in the context of Matthew’s intended audience, a Jewish-Christian community. The Gospel alludes to the dangers and persecutions that this community has most likely already faced and will continue to face. To reassure this community, Matthew recalls for them the encouraging words of Jesus that we read today.

In this Gospel passage, Jesus might be understood as putting suffering in perspective. The disciples of Jesus are called upon to keep their focus on God. Those who can harm the body do not have ultimate power; God does. Still persecution and suffering cannot be avoided or prevented. But Jesus reassures his disciples that God knows and cares about what happens to his children.

We might not face the same type of persecution, but we do experience difficulties as we endeavor to live a Christian life. Sometimes we let the opinions of others prevent us from doing what we know to be right. We need the reminder that what God thinks about us is more important. We are reassured by the promise that God cares for us and protects us.

FROM THE DESK OF

Deacon Mike

Dear Parishioners of Visitation,

I am moved by the warm welcome that I have received from you over the past two weeks here. My sincerest thanks to all the couples, families, and individuals for your smiles, your prayers, and your words of encouragement. I have felt right at home since the day that I arrived. Thank you.

I grew up in Brick, near Brielle. My home parish was St. Mary's in Lakewood, where I was an altar server and organist. Most of my youth was spent studying music. I studied classical performance and composition at universities in New York, Massachusetts, and North Carolina. Throughout this time, I worked as a musician in various ways, including as an independent teacher, freelance piano player, and organist for Roman Catholic parishes.

In my late teens and early twenties, I became dissatisfied with my childhood formation in Catholicism. If I was going to continue to be a practicing Catholic as an adult, I needed to have a clearer picture of what I was doing. I came from a Catholic family, but had very few practicing Catholic friends; I felt isolated, and was tempted to stop attending Mass.

It would have been easy to abandon religion at that point. However, by God's grace, I was drawn deeper into Catholicism. I began to attend daily Mass, and read theology, in particular the works of Pope Benedict. I had not been in any long-term dating relationships, and I began to feel like I could try celibacy. The Lord was working with me in my spiritual life to the point where I started to desire a more radical commitment to Him than I could make as a freelance musician. But I still felt ambivalent about the priesthood. I ended up becoming a religious brother at a community in North Jersey.

During my time there, I lived a life of prayer, study, and fraternity. Through various connections that I made with priests, I eventually found myself at the home of Bishop O'Connell, discussing a vocation to the priesthood for this diocese. Becoming a seminarian was the best decision of my life. Training for the priesthood has not been easy, but I have been blessed with excellent teachers and mentors, and wonderful friends, who have affirmed me in my vocational discernment.

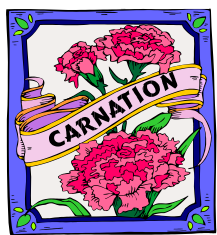

I would kindly ask you to please pray for those men discerning priesthood for our diocese. These are trying times for the Catholic faith. Christ is still calling men to the priesthood right here at the Jersey Shore, but they are often in situations in which it is difficult for them to hear and follow this calling. Simply mentioning priestly discernment invites ridicule by peers, and sometimes even by family members. They need your prayers. Thank you for supporting me, and for supporting my seminarian brothers as we prepare to serve Christ as His priests. Asking God's blessing upon you and your families, I am

Yours in Christ,

Rev. Mr. Michael DeSaye

MASS DURING VACATION

As Catholics we are expected to attend Mass every Sunday and other Holy Days of Obligation. One primary reason for attending Mass is to receive Jesus' Body and Blood. That's not just an obligation but an amazing gift. The Church doesn't want us to miss an opportunity to meet with Christ for any avoidable reason.

Going to Mass at a local church can be a fun way to experience the local customs of places we visit. While the Mass itself doesn't change, parishes may have different ways of greeting visitors, singing different hymns or even offer hospitality after Mass that can help you get tips for places to visit while you are there. To find the nearest Catholic Church anywhere in the United States, go to www.parishesonline.com or www.masstimes.org.

"Give, and it will be given to you. Good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap. For with the measure you use it will be measured back to you." Luke 6:38

 While the members of St. Vincent de Paul work selflessly to give assistance to those in need in our area, it is due to the wonderful kindness and generosity of our parishioners that enables us to do as much. Your donations of money and prayers are an indication of your own selflessness and for this we are grateful.

The St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Shop (located in the old church basement) continues to thrive (thanks again due to your donations.) Stop by our store and browse. Perhaps you may find something you didn't even know you needed.

God's Blessings to All !!!!

PLEASE NOTE

There will be no Rosary Altar or Holy Name Society meetings during the summer. Meetings resume in September. New members are welcome.

"Acts of Faith, Works of Love"
We are demonstrating our love of God by our generosity to the Annual Catholic Appeal.

JUNE 25, 2017

“FORTNIGHT FOR FREEDOM” will take place once again in our Diocese as it will in all the Dioceses across the United States of America. Launched by the U.S Conference of Catholic Bishops, this event takes place every year at this time. It is a fourteen day period that begins on June 21st and concludes on July 4th, Independence Day. The theme this year is “Freedom for Mission.”

The struggle for religious liberty is essential to the Church’s teaching. This country was built on religious freedom and not the other way around. We must protect the dignity of the human person, reach out to the marginalized help them to feel important and worthy and considered.

In Dignitatis Humanae, Pope Paul the VI says:“...all men and women should be immune from coercion on the part of individuals, social groups, or any human power, so that no one is forced to act against his conscience, in private or in public, whether alone or in association with others, within due limits.”

The Church does not defend religious freedom because we want special treatment for the Church. Our concern for religious freedom is not the same as a politician’s concern; it is a concern for legitimate rights; for respect for each and every person. The Church seeks to defend religious freedom because the Church loves the human race and believes it is essential to human dignity. At the very heart of our dignity is the freedom to love God. That freedom has been weakened by the attitude of the world today, which is caused by sin.

Please visit the Bishop’s site at USCCB.org for more information.

A PRAYER FOR LIBERTY

Dear Jesus, I've lost something very precious to me, will you help me find it; my right to religious freedom. There is a war on religion in America. There has been an attack on our personal and public liberty. Religious liberty is a right afforded to us in the U.S. constitution. Religious freedom of worship amidst radical secularism is making it difficult for our moral objections. We should not have to violate our consciences. Our children have the right to the true meaning of the sacrament of marriage, and the true meaning of the sacred gift of life you have given us. The government cannot take away true freedom. We as Catholics must fight against forces seeking to remove the influence of religion from American culture. Lord, help us to put an end to this war on religion and our rights. Thank you Jesus.
