Seminary Collection

Our seminarians are the future shepherds of our flock, spiritual guides for our faithful and leaders in our communities. It is our responsibility to see that they are well prepared as possible to serve the Church in New York. This year, St. Joseph's Seminary begins its 122nd year of forming and ordaining holy, faithful, and dedicated priests. I invite you to consider, in your own prayer, a sacrificial gift to the Annual Seminary Collection, to be conducted September 29th and 30th. Your support will provide tuition and room and board for more than forty seminarians of the archdiocese.

Confronting Satan With Prayer

St. Michael's feast day is around the corner, September 29. So, beginning Friday, September 21, the Feast of St. Matthew the Evangelist, I am asking that every Mass conclude, for nine days—a novena—with the ancient prayer requesting the Archangel's intercession against our foe, Satan.

Here's the prayer: please, for the nine days concluding on September 29, his feast day, conclude every Mass with this prayer. If you're not at daily Mass during the week, say it yourself:

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.
